The Barrell in Osburn

The Barrel on Mullan Ave., in Osburn, Idaho was started by a prominent Kellogg businessman, Pete Albinola. Henry Johnson was contracted to build the barrel shaped restaurant, sometime in the late 1920s or early 1930s. The George family purchased it in the 1940s and built an addition of living quarters to the restaurant. June and Robert Hamer bought the Barrel in 1947. Along with curb service and carhops there was a large screen along the west side of the lot and a projector pointed out of the upstairs window from the top of the Barrel. People would watch the movies from their cars while local kids sat on the logs in the parking lot. Car hops filled burger orders as the movie played. The Hamer's daughter, Karen, recalls her mom running upstairs to splice the film together to keep the movies going while she was filling burger orders to a full lot below. Mrs. Hamer also kept the peace between local teens. In her starched white, buttoned up cooks uniform she waded through crowds of drunken kids with motorcycles and cars to break up the fights between the rival kids from Wallace and Osburn. When she spoke everyone listened, everyone respected her and after one word from her everything would calm down. They would go inside and clean up. They sold the Barrel in 1970.

Dave Johnson

"The Outdoor Insider"

I had a lot of fun last week. I fished for walleye on Moses Lake and smallmouth bass at Crescent Bar. I even was part of the Crescent Bar Opening Day of Boating Parade, sponsored by Bob Feil Boats and Motors. I never know what I may be doing as summer approaches, but I am sure it will at least include some fishing fun.

When I called Tom Verschueren and asked him if he wanted to try fishing for smallmouth bass at Crescent Bar he said he was eager to go. I told him that part of the deal was that he would be participating in the Crescent Bar Boat Parade while we were there, and he liked that, too. Maybe the promise of free pizza from Tower Pizza had something to do with that. We launched across from the marina and started trolling crank baits in the channel. I landed a really nice smallmouth while we were still in the shallow water, just past the swimming area. Tom got one, just about the same size when we were further down the channel. I expected the fishing to be better by now. When I checked the water temperature it was just 51 degrees. That explained it. We will be going back when the water warms up a bit. Tom and I have had some amazing days catching smallmouth in the channel below the cliffs and the size of the fish we release in May is excellent. Much bigger than we usually get at Banks Lake. We joined the parade that passed under the bridge at the marina and saw that there was a crowd from one end to the other. The boats had been decorated and the passengers were in full costume. Tom said that he could see this event becoming very popular and grow every year. This week's photo is of me with a Crescent Bar smallmouth. Another place where we have caught some whopper smallmouth is on Moses Lake. The fish should be on beds on Moses Lake now, and the opportunity to catch some big, pre-spawn fish is the best right now.

I was to meet James Lebow and Ryan Harris at Moses Lake at 7 on Thursday morning. Knowing I am always early, they had the boat in the water when I arrived, and we actually landed our first fish at five minutes to 7. So began the best day of walleye fishing we have had this season. The walleye bite was great that morning. We had six rods out and at times we only had one rod in the water. We got four perch that were 12 inches long and one a bit smaller that went into the live well. There were a lot of perch around and we were burning through the crawlers. We got a few catfish, of course, and although the walleye bite would slow occasionally, it would come back on. We tried to keep track of the number of fish we had in the live well, and figured we needed two more fish for our limits — but we were out of worms. We were using pieces of worm and even some fake worms I found in my tackle box, but at eleven o'clock we headed for the dock. Turns out we had 23 walleye and had released two!

There are two good reasons to head to Banks Lake right now. One is that the walleye are biting. I have had several reports of people getting not big numbers of them, but lots of good quality fish. Many in the 15 to 18 inch class and many over 22 inches are being released. Remember, only one walleye over 22 inches is allowed in your eight fish limit. I always look for walleye on Barker Flats in 20 to 25 feet of water, but there are a couple of other areas that should be explored. The Punch Bowl, which is around the corner from Northrup and across from the Steamboat State Park. It can often be protected when it is windy. I also like to look for fish on the back side of Steamboat Rock and start trolling on the sand flats down lake. Another good reason to head for banks is that the smallmouth are now coming onto their beds and the fishing can be the best of the season. Smallmouth can be found throughout the lake, and I like to cast crank baits on the edges but also look for shallow flats this time of year. Barker Flats can be hot!

Mark your calendar for the Bob Feil Boats and Motors Summer Kick Off event on June 7th and 8th. These two days are packed with a variety of things that recreational boaters and anglers will not want to miss. There are some serious discounts on a variety of products throughout the store. There are seminars on a wide range of topics presented on both days. Reps from both Yamaha and Mercury will be on hand to answer technical questions. There is even going to be the D's Beans food truck at the dealership. The event will be going on from 9 to 5 on both Friday and Saturday. They are adding things to the event all the time and you should check out their Facebook Page for updates.

There should be about 7,000 spring Chinook that have passed over Rock Island Dam, and very good number of them are headed for the Icicle, which opened on May 16th. The water is high but clear on the river when I last checked, and if there are fish in the river anglers have good conditions to catch them. I have stopped by the take out a couple of times, but haven't seen a WDFW fish checker there, and no boats were coming off the river at that time. So, I don't have a handle on angler success. I will continue to see what I can find out about how the fishing for springer is and I expect the opportunity for success to improve as more fish move up and into the Icicle.

My plans for the coming week include a return trip to Moses Lake. We hope to find the walleye where we found them last week. I also want to get up to Rufus Woods to see what size the trout are now.

TESTING THEIR ENDURANCE

The Mad Greeks (46) from Spokane compete against the Fat and Furious entry from Calgary, Alberta in the Qlispé Classic 2024 May 18-19 at Qlispé Raceway Park. The Mad Greeks eventually won the race.

The Qlispé Classic was founded in 2022 to bring drivers and race enthusiasts back to the long track in Spokane now known as the Qlispé Raceway Park (QRP). This 24-hour endurance race is inclusive and operated independently of other clubs or series. The cars are divided into three classes based on how much fuel per pit stop they can add: Sipper (10 gallons per stop), Gulper (15 gallons), and Chugger (20 gallons). For teams who don't have enough drivers to complete all 24 hours, there's an option to run the first 12 hours as it's own mini-enduro to boost car counts.

KYLE LARSON STARTS FIFTH IN FIRST INDY 500 From Racing America

Kyle Larson first raced his way into the Indy 500 next week and then finished fourth in a NASCAR All-Star race nearly 600 miles away in North Wilkesboro, N.C. Penske Entertainment: Joe Skibinski

Indianapolis, Ind. — The expectations continue to grow for generational driving talent Kyle Larson. The Hendrick Motorsports NASCAR Cup Series driver, who is competing in his first Indianapolis 500 this season, locked his spot in the field for the prestigious race in qualifying on Saturday. Incredibly, Larson didn't just lock himself into the field, but he advanced to the Fast 12.

Sunday, Larson ratcheted up things even further by advancing to the Fast Six, and after running a four-lap average of 232.846 mph in the Fast Six round of qualifying, Larson officially secured a top-five starting spot in his first Indianapolis 500 attempt.

After climbing from his No. 17 Arrow McLaren race car, Larson credited his IndyCar team and everyone at Hendrick Motorsports for allowing him to check this off his bucket list, and for the incredible effort to make the car as fast as it has been.

"Qualifying went a lot better than I ever could have hoped or anticipated," Larson explained when pressed about how he is running so well in his first Indy 500 qualifying attempt. "(I'm) just proud of everyone at Arrow McLaren, and proud of everybody at Hendrick Motorsports that has been involved in this. Huge thank you to Rick Hendrick, Linda, the Jeffs -- Jeff Gordon and Jeff Andrews -- Cliff Daniels, Chad Knaus. Everybody involved to make this possible."

There's no time to rest or celebrate the run for Larson, as he is immediately taking off to North Wilkesboro Speedway, where he finished fourth in a NASCAR All-Star Race.

NW MOTORSPORTS Report

"Going fast is your job...Telling people about it is ours...!"

Thanks to the Exchange for helping continue the four-decade tradition of delivering weekly motorsports news to the Inland Northwest!

KLEYN MAKES IT TWO STRAIGHT AT STATELINE From NWSLM & NWMNS

Stateline, Idaho – Kasey Kleyn entered the May 18 "Northwest Super Late Model 125 presented by Les Schwab" at Stateline Speedway on a streak – four second place finishes in-a-row in the NWSLMS.

Quincey's Kleyn left Findlay Stadium on another streak, as he scored his second victory in-a-row at the ¼-mile oval. Kleyn is the third winner in as many 2024 races.

Kleyn grabbed the lead on lap 66 and held off multiple challengers to score a $3,600 win. He finished ahead of Zach Riehl from Corbett, Ore., Spokane's Jason O'Neil, with Scott Walker (Prosser) and Dave Garber (Spokane) rounding out the top-5.

"It feels really good," Kleyn said regarding his ability to finally break into the win column again. "Second is a good finish, but it doesn't feel like a good finish, because you are so close."

Kleyn set Fast Time for the evening earning the AFCA Racing / Longacre Racing Products Fast Time Award for the second event in-a-row. For the second event in-a-row he also drew the unlucky number eight in the redraw.

The same could be said for Spokane's Haeden Plybon, as he drew the number one pill. Plybon parlayed his good fortune into an immediate lead, as he pulled away from fellow front row started Jason O'Neil to start.

Plybon pulled out to a 10-car lead, but O'Neil closed in heavy traffic, bringing Kleyn and Goetz with him. As Plybon worked lapped traffic, with O'Neil in tow, the 2023 series champion made sight contact with former "Idaho 200" winner Cory

Allard, as he looked to the outside.

That contact changed the complexion of the race as the caution came out on lap 63 and Plybon retired to the pits with a flat left front tire after leading all previous laps.

Kleyn grabbed the win at what he would consider his home track.

"I started out racing Bando's here", Kleyn explained. "It makes it a lot easier when you like the track, to be really good there"

Riehl ran in the top group the entire race, cracking the top-five before lap 50. He progressed patiently to the runner-up position, avoiding any issues, to score a career best finish of second.

"It was kinda' my strategy (to be patient)", "I knew the top was gonna' come in, or hopefully come in. But it did for a little bit, so I was just riding and riding. I just started picking up cars one by one until the end."

The next event for the Northwest Super Late Model Series will be at Hermiston Raceway on June 15.

LOGANO DOMINATES ALL-STAR RACE AT NORTH WILKESBORO

From Racing America

North Wilkesboro, N.C. — Sunday's NASCAR All-Star Race at the newly-resurfaced North Wilkesboro Speedway was pretty straightforward for Joey Logano.

A two-time champion of the NASCAR Cup Series, the 33-year-old driver started from the pole, placed his No. 22 Ford Mustang Dark Horse at the front of the pack, and pretty much left it there, leading 199 of 200 laps.

It's the second victory in the $1-million-to-win exhibition event for Logano, who becomes just the second driver in the race's 40-year history to win at two different race-tracks — Charlotte and North Wilkesboro.

"A lot of fun when you've got a car this fast," said Logano after the race. "The Shell/Pennzoil Mustang, it's just so great to get in Victory Lane. All of our sponsors and everyone who stuck with us to get a win, it feels nice. It's been a while. I wish it was for points, but a million bucks is still a lot of money and I feel great about that."

While the talk of All-Star Weekend was surrounding the multiple tire compounds that Goodyear was bringing to the race-track — the usual 'prime' tire, and a softer 'option' tire — the impact it had on Sunday's race was minimal.

"Well, we did the first 100, so why wouldn't it last the second 100," Logano quipped when asked about the choice to run the soft tire for the final 100 laps. "That was our thought, so it was definitely an aggressive strategy, but it worked out good."

Following a short battle with Ryan Blaney, Denny Hamlin managed to hold onto second place, with Chris Buescher continuing a strong run of finishes in third place.

Kyle Larson, who hours before the start of the All-Star Race managed to qualify inside the top five for the Indianapolis 500, started at the rear of the field and drove to a fourth-place finish. Ryan Blaney rounded out the top five.

Daytime air temps are favorable; nighttime temps are getting warmer and so is the soil. Our last average frost date is May 15. Prepare your vegetable beds and get ready to plant tomatoes, root crops, leafy greens & more!

DIVIDE PERENNIALS

Now is a good time to divide perennials that have grown too large for their space or if you want to move plants around your garden. Depending on the plant, there are several ways to do this job.

NURTURE BENEFICIALS

Many insects and other small creatures are desirable to have in your garden. Take special care to provide food, shelter and water. Avoid using broad spectrum insecticides that kill even the good guys!

THE TRANSACTION SELLER BASICS

HOW TO: Prepare for a Short Sale

A short sale is one where the net proceeds from the sale won't cover your total mortgage obligation and closing costs, and you don't have other sources of money to cover the deficiency. It's significantly different from a foreclosure, which is when your lender takes the title of your home through a lengthy legal process and then sells it directly. A short sale is sometimes the route sellers take to avoid foreclosure.

Consider loan modification first.

Contact your lender to see if it has programs to help you stay in your home. You may be able to refinance your loan at a lower interest rate, switch to a different payment plan to help you get caught up, or secure a temporary forbearance period.

Hire a qualified team.

Find a qualified real estate agent and a real estate attorney who both specialize in short sales. Interview at least three candidates for each and look for prior short-sale experience. Find people who will advise you in your best interests. A qualified real estate professional can give you accurate pricing advice through a comparative market analysis or broker price opinion. The team will also be able to expertly market the home, negotiate complex contracts with buyers, and ease the process of working with your lender(s).

Prepare a short-sale package to send to your lender(s) for approval.

You can't sell short without your lender (and any other lien holders) agreeing to the sale and releasing the lien so that the buyers can get a clear title. This is another task where your team will be indispensable.

Gather documentation before offers come in.

Your lender requires several documents in order to consider a short sale. This package accompanies the offer, typically including:

- A hardship letter detailing your financial situation and why you require a short sale
- A copy of the purchase contract and listing agreement
- Proof of your income and assets
- Copies of your federal income tax returns for the past two years
