WEEKLY Horoscopes

for August 1 - August 7

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20
Your feelings this week may not be entirely trustworthy, Aries. You could end up worrying for nothing, and being pulled into difficult situations for the wrong reasons.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21
Taurus, if you are feeling a little lost these days, it could be that you need a change in perspective and location to help you get inspired. Plan a short trip to recharge.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21
You cannot serve as mediator or help friends establish harmony if you are all over the emotional map, Gemini. Work your way through your emotions before offering to help.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22
Cancer, you may be so caught up in a specific vision for the future that you are not open to new ideas that are equally beneficial and possible. Be more receptive to what others offer.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23
Leo, once you give a certain plan a little more thought you may determine it isn't worth your time right now. Perhaps you've been building this idea up in your head.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
Virgo, you are eager to share your ideas and vision with others, but right now the audience isn't as receptive as you would have hoped. Do not give up; people will come around.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
Libra, you have a way of doing things, and right now you're not ready to deviate from that routine. With time you may be able to branch out and try a new approach.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
People are receptive to your words and you often speak with assertiveness Scorpio. Do not let this go to your head, though. Aspire to be humble while exhibiting confidence.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
Sagittarius, this is one of those weeks when you can get into trouble if you let your emotions be the driving force behind your actions. Make an effort to balance emotion and reason.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
This is your week to really shine, Capricorn. Let others know what you're made of, but be sure you do not do something at another person's expense just to get ahead.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
Aquarius, if you do not like the course you are on, you have the ability to change things whenever you want. Nothing is set in stone at this point, so start dreaming up new ideas.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20
Pisces, there are so many ways you can be creative and express yourself. This is a week of true inspiration and exploration. Nothing is off-limits if you desire it.

HISTORIC PHOTOS of IDAHO PANHANDLE

Hunting in 1895

Frank Best, Bill Hagger and Duke Richie with their hunting outfits about 1895. While stationed at Fort Sherman they acted as hunting guides during their off-time duties. Some famous people used their services on hunting expeditions including Mr. Folgers, the "coffee magnet", as they affectionately called him. Also John Browning of the Browning Ammunition Company. Many soldiers at the Fort earned extra wages in this fashion as hunting guides and sometimes trapping too.

Hard to believe it's August already. Time flies when you're having fun, and I am having a lot of fun fishing for sockeye on Lake Wenatchee. I am not alone. There's a good sized fleet of boats out on the lake most days. If the forecast is for wind, many anglers are taking the day off and waiting for better conditions to chase sockeye. As I mentioned in my last column, I took my brother Rick, cousin Greg Preston and his son Tim sockeye fishing on opening day. We got 16 sockeye!

The wind on Lake Wenatchee blew so hard last Monday evening that there was a real concern about the dock I was on. One boat got loose but was retrieved before it got away. While inspecting the dock and adjusting how the boats were tied up, we spotted a boat drifting our way. It had come from a dock up lake and was on a collision course with our dock. We caught it before it did any damage, and the boat was driven to Crescent Beach and loaded on a trailer. Whew. It was a nervous evening. On Tuesday morning Dennis Beich and I hopped on my boat and drove up to the top of the lake, where I had started on opening day. The wind wasn't as bad as it was on Monday, but keeping the right trolling speed was still a challenge. The bite didn't happen immediately, and we tried a variety of different hook colors and rigs. Finally, the bite came later in the morning, and we started getting fish. Dennis had the hot rod and the downrigger on his side of the boat went off repeatedly. His three red-hook rig was deadly, and we got enough fish on other rods to get our limits. Something that happened to us last year occurred again. We needed just one fish, and we got a double, and released one to end our day.

When we reached the dock Tuesday, with two limits of sockeye, my fishing partner Dennis Beich mentioned that he was staying another night at State Park campground. He asked if I would take him out again the next day. You can imagine how hard it is to talk me into going fishing, and I immediately said yes. Dennis is a pleasure to have on the boat, as he has his own boat and knows how to run a downrigger and put out gear and he can net fish. The wind wasn't as bad on Wednesday as it had been the prior two days. So, for the first time I headed down lake toward West Point. Nothing was happening and I turned the boat around and we started trolling up lake out in the middle. Finally, I hooked and landed a fish. There was a long interval until we got another one, but we were back at the top end of the lake where I have had we landed four more fish before the wind just got to be too much and we headed for the dock. That evening, after dinner in Leavenworth, we stopped by The Little Kitchen Shop to find some fish bone tweezers, and my wife Eileen had the idea of putting the photo of Whitney and me holding her big fish on a mug. I sent the photo to an e-mail address, and we had the mug done in a very short time. Amazing! The photo we put on the mug is the photo for this week's column.

As many of you know, I always support efforts to get kids fishing. I think that fishing is a great activity for young people. My neighbor, Calder Fiske, is my number one fan, and probably the most enthusiastic angler I know. Although just 12 years old, Calder has come up with a plan to help get kids out to experience the fun of fishing. He has planned a free "Just for Kids Fishing Fun Day Derby" at Blackbird Island Pond in Leavenworth on Saturday, August 17th. Blackbird Island Pond is open to Juveniles only and only kids under the age of 15 can fish here. Calder has medals to award anglers who turn in their biggest fish in several age categories, age four up to age 14. He also has a medal to give the angler that clearly had no help from their parent. Kids need to bring their own fishing gear. Families can register their kids for the free event when they arrive at the pond. The event starts at 7 a.m. and you can turn in fish until noon. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer to help at the event, you can contact Calder at Calder.fiske@icloud.com.

The Brewster King Salmon Derby kicks off on Friday this week, so I hope you have your registration in. Derby participants always turn in lots of big kings during this event. The sockeye return has overshadowed the king fishing this year, and the derby is a great measure of how anglers who want to catch Chinook salmon can do. Congrats in advance to Mike Mauk who organizes this very popular derby.

TELLSTROM TAKES THRILLING TITLE AT IDAHO 200

Post Falls, Idaho (July 27, 2024) — The 25th edition of the Idaho 200 at Stateline Speedway had plenty with which to remember for the largely-filled grandstands.

There was the big purse with $20,000 to the winner. A huge field of 41 wannabe's were trying to crack the 26-car starting grid. And a warm July evening of racing that ran caution-free through 137 laps on the crowded quarter-mile track.

But it may be the finish that people will talk about in years to come where Kyle Tellstrom led a three-wide drag race to the finish line for the win over Haeden Plybon from Mead, Wash. and Senoia, California's Bubba Pollard. Rounding out the top five were John Newhouse from Twin Falls and Spokane's Trayten Tarr.

Tellstrom's margin of victory was just .084 seconds with Pollard a quarter second back as the trio banged their way to the stripe and the checkered flag.

The Idaho 200 adds another notable regional late model victory notch on Tellstrom's belt with him having won the 2023 Apple Cup at Tri City Raceway. Tellstrom is from Ukiah, Calif.

"I knew it was going to be hard to get there," Tellstrom said after the race. "I was waiting for the bumper, got there a couple times, and just luckily made the right moves and everything worked out for us."

The clean nature of the race went away somewhat over the final 50 laps when a series of yellow flags begins to fly with spin-outs and the only crash between Michael Kuntson (driving the #64 of Garrett Evans) and Thomas Stanford with just eight laps remaining.

That set up the late-race drama as both Plybon, the race's 2022 winner, and Pollard were able to further tighten an already close race.

The trio went at it bumper to bumper until the final push through turns three and four when Plybon tried the high side and Pollard went down low.

"I had to run Haeden pretty tight, he kind of was driving down my door," Tellstrom said.

Plybon dominated the race from the start and bolted to the lead on the first lap from his outside front row starting spot. He maintained that spot until just before the break on lap 92 when Tellstrom trimmed an early seven-second lead and grabbed the lead.

At the midpoint the teams pulled onto the front straightaway where each car was able to do minor adjustments and swap tires. This race was run under a six-tire rule where just two tires were allowed to be changed.

Plybon, who faded a bit in the final part of the first half and said via text message, "The first hundred we were just riding."

"At the halfway we put on two right side tires and did some minor adjustments to get the car more forward drive," Plybon explained. He ran the entire race in the top-three — never very far out of the lead.

That late caution gave Plybon a shot of new life and he seemed to make the best of it.

"The caution with eight to go definitely put us in a better position with us starting right on the outside of the leader," he said. "But unfortunately, we came up one spot short."

While there was no win for him personally, Plybon suggested, "It seemed to have been quite the show for the crowd."

Other former Idaho 200 winners did not have much luck with Nick Gibson (2023) landing in 10th while Corey Allard (2021) was 19th.

In the support show, the "Gauge Howell Memorial" Hobby Stock 50-plus 10 lap main, Garrett Huffines from Selah, Wash. finished first and pocketed $10,010 in the race honoring a young racer who passed away in 2023.

COLUMBIA CUP TURNS INTO 'DEMO DERBY'

Kennewick, Wash. (July 28, 2024) — Fans expecting to see the world's fastest race boats on the Columbia River in the Tri Cities got to witness a demolition derby of sorts instead.

But Corey Peabody survived the carnage to win his second consecutive Apollo Columbia Cup Tri Cities race — his third in the last four — driving the U-9 Beacon Plumbing to the win over Andrew Tate in the U-91 Goodman Real Estate.

Peabody, who averaged 138.316 miles-per-hour, snapped Tate's two race win streak with victories at Gunterville, Alabama and Madison, Ind. to start the season.

"We had such a strong Beacon Electric hydroplane all weekend long and just so happy we were able to finish off the weekend with a win," Peabody said.

Peabody fared much better than teammate J. Michael Kelly who was involved in a spectacular crash in Saturday heat racing.

While the brilliant red hydro suffered extensive damage, Kelly effectively walked away from the wreck that will make the Strong Racing crew work plenty of overtime to ready the hull for this week's 75th edition of the Seafair Apollo Mechanical Cup on Lake Washington.

"It's been a tough couple of days for Strong Racing so to come out and get this victory really means a lot to our team," Peabody said.

Eight race boats entered at Tri Cities but just five were on hand for Sunday's winner-take-all Columbia Cup finale.

Peabody jumped out to the lead and never looked back. The battle for second place heated up between Tate in the U-91 Goodman Real Estate boat and Dustin Echols driving the U-40 Flav-R-PAC. Tate averaged 136.686 mph to Echols' 135.769.

Aside from Kelly's crash, both the U-27 Apollo Mechanical driven by Dave Villwock and U-12 Graham Trucking with Bobby King at the wheel were also scratched in a collision in Sunday's heat 2A.

King nearly overturned and his boat sustained damage before getting struck by the Apollo. Villwock drove the U-27 back to the pit area and King was evaluated and released from the on-site medical center. Both boats would be out of competition the rest of the afternoon.

The 56th edition of the race started under troublesome conditions when Friday qualifying had to be postponed and the usual 2.5-mile course shortened to 2-miles.

A shallow part of the river in the northwest corner was considered a safety hazard, forcing the course correction.

That compressed things to just Saturday and when the Kelly wreck happened it further altered the schedule.

Perhaps the best part of the win in Tri Cities for Peabody comes next year when the Beacon team will have the preferential pit position. That's under a big tree that was planted decades ago by the late Bernie Little of Miss Budweiser fame.

Heading to Seattle in the next-to-last 2024 race, Tate holds a 4,450 to 3,519 (931 points) lead in national standings.

The wild ride of J. Michael Kelly and the Beacon Electric unlimited hydroplane during a Saturday, July 27 heat race at the Tri Cities Apollo Columbia Cup. Kelly was treated and released from an on-site medical facility, but the boat sustained heavy damage. The Strong Racing crew will spend long hours trying to put it all back together in time for the 75th annual Seafair race this weekend on Lake Washington in Seattle. HI Photos

Seller Basics | The Transaction

HOW TO NAVIGATE A SHORT SALE

Be prepared for a lengthy waiting period.

Even if you're well organized and have all the documents in place, short sales can still be a long process. Waiting for your lender's review of the short-sale package can take several weeks or even months. The length varies by lender and location, but these benchmarks can put your situation in perspective:

- If you have only one mortgage, the review often takes about 2 months.
- If you have a first and second mortgage with the same lender, the review can take about 3 months.
- With two or more mortgages with different lenders, it can take 4 months or longer.

Your real estate professional and attorney, with your authorization, can work with your lender's loss mitigation department on your behalf to prepare the proper documentation and speed the process along.

When the bank does respond...

It can approve the short sale, make a counteroffer, or deny the short sale. The last two actions can lengthen the process or put you back at square one.

Don't expect a short sale to solve your financial problems.

Here are some post-short sale conditions to keep in mind:

- Your lender may ask you to sign a promissory note agreeing to pay back the amount of your loan not paid off by the short sale. If your financial hardship is permanent and you can't pay back the balance, talk with your real estate attorney about your options.
- Any amount of your mortgage that is forgiven by your lender may be considered income, and you may have to pay taxes on that amount.
- Having a portion of your debt forgiven may have an adverse effect on your credit score. However, a short sale will generally affect your credit score less severely than foreclosure or bankruptcy.
