CITY OF Spokane Valley
THE CITY OF SPOKANE VALLEY HIGHLIGHTS
 10210 E. Sprague Ave. | 509-921-1000 | SpokaneValley.org
YOUR CONNECTION TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Recent Updates...

Spokane Valley City Council - August 27, 2024

The Spokane Valley City Council met in its formal format to close out August 2024. The first item of business was Mayor Haley's appointments to the City's Lodging Tax Advisory Committee. That committee, per state law, consists of five members. There are two representatives of businesses required to collect the tax, two members involved in activities authorized to be funded by the tax, and one City Councilmember who serves as the chair.

Two appointed positions expired as of December 31, 2023: one to collect the tax, one funded by the tax. Ads soliciting applicants for the positions garnered one for each. Amanda Alcamo, representing Oxford Suites, for collectors, and Rustin Hall, representing Spokane Sports, for those funded.

The motion to confirm the Mayor's appointments passed unanimously.

In April, the City received notice that it would receive a grant of $325,000 from the Department of Commerce (DOC) to assist with the update of the City's Comprehensive Plan. The City is mandated by state law to review and revise its Comprehensive Plan and Development Regulations every 10 years (Periodic Update). The purpose of the Periodic Updates is to ensure that the City's Comprehensive Plan and Regulations are in compliance with state law.

A separate grant is available to assist in the state directed requirement for local jurisdictions to develop and adopt a new Climate Element to address 'climate resilience' and greenhouse gas emissions. It should be noted that the legislature has essentially created a top-down approach to local comprehensive planning where the State is dictating policy and development regulations local governments shall adopt. Prior to those recent changes, broad goals allowing local governments the flexibility to mold their comprehensive plans and development regulations specific to the local community's needs were the norm. Unfortunately, there are many requirements that must be adhered to for the City to have a compliant Comprehensive Plan and supporting regulations.

Staff requested consensus to authorize the Mayor to sign two letters needed to apply for the grants. The motion to authorize the Mayor to sign the letter of commitment to apply for the Periodic Update grant and the Climate grant passed unanimously.

Council was presented with a Wildfire Incident Preparedness report prepared by the Spokane Valley Fire Department, Spokane County Fire District 8, and Spokane County Emergency Management. A wildland urban interface (WUI) is an area where homes are built near or among lands prone to wildland fires. Such an area is any developed place where conditions affecting the combustibility of vegetation, structures, or infrastructure (build fuels), allow for the ignition and spread of fire through the combined fuels.

The response to a wildfire emergency starts with a coordinated effort of emergency agencies such as emergency alerts, shelter set up, animal shelters and evacuation. Such items as unified command, identified evacuation levels, and incident management are critical. However, preparedness starts with each individual. Websites to visit for more information: DNR Wildfire Ready Neighbors, Spokane County Community resilience website, and Spokane County Preparedness folder guide.

City Finance Director, Chelsie Taylor, presented the 2025 Budget Estimated Revenue and Expense forecast. This is the second of eight occasions where Council will discuss items in the budget adoption process. State law requires the City to hold a public hearing on revenue sources and expenditures to gather and consider public input. That hearing is scheduled to take place at the September 17th Council meeting.

In summary, the 2025 recurring revenue estimate is $63,238,300 which is 1.17% greater than the 2024 budget. The recurring expenditure estimate of $63,236,092 is 6.35% more than the 2024 budget of $59,461,707. Estimated 2025 budgeted recurring revenues currently exceed recurring expenditures by $2,208. The number of full-time employee will decline to 116.25, a decrease of three employees. That reduction is accomplished by not funding three staff positions but adding a public safety manager.

The target date for Council's adoption of the 2025 budget is November 12th, following the final public hearing.

Spokane Valley City Council meetings are held in City Hall, 10210 E. Sprague Avenue, on Tuesdays, commencing at 6:00pm. City Hall is open for regular business during normal business hours (8:00am to 5:00pm). The Public is invited to Council meetings to participate in action items or public comment periods in person or via ZOOM. Call 509-720-5000 or prior to 4:00 p.m. for access instructions. Council meetings are broadcast on Comcast channel 14.

Guess Who?

I am an actress born in New York on August 29, 1986. I began as a child star on the Broadway stage, and starred with fellow musical theater icon Jonathan Groff on Broadway as well. Fans probably know me best for my role on a TV show about a glee club.

You make plans and then Mother Nature steps in and throws a kink in it. I was planning to fish Banks Lake last week, but it didn't happen. Instead of two trips to Banks Lake I wound up fishing much closer to home and having a great time anyway.

I told you my daughter Whitney loves to fish Banks Lake. She has great luck catching walleye and smallmouth bass. She also likes to take swim breaks while we are on the water, and that was the plan for last weekend. However, it poured down rain on Saturday, so we had to come up with something else to do. We went to the Pybus Farmer's Market and got some Quincy corn and Manila clams for dinner. Then we drove to Sunnyslope to visit Ohme Gardens, something she has wanted to do for years. The rain held off long enough for us to explore this very special place with vistas of the Wenatchee Valley. On Sunday I took her to Fish Lake. We had fished here before, but never for perch. I picked a spot out in the middle of the lower end of the lake, and we tossed out our hooks baited with chunks of nightcrawler. There were plenty of perch around and she had a blast. The sun came out, the wind died down, and we watched both a bald eagle and ospreys pluck fish from the lake. I sent her home with a bag of perch fillets for dinner—Yum!

Mabel Jima was visiting her grandparents, Tom and Diane Verschuren, who live in Dryden, and I wanted to take her fishing while she was here. This 10-year-old is an accomplished angler who catches fish from the dock at her home on Lake Sammamish. Fish Lake is close to our home in Leavenworth, and I figured we could entertain her with perch fishing. It was a bit breezy when we arrived at the lake, but nothing like what I had been dealing with on Lake Wenatchee during sockeye season. I drove the boat out to where I usually find schools of perch, and looked and looked but didn't really find anything. Finally, I just shut down the big motor and put the bow mount down on Anchor Mode. We baited our hooks with pieces of nightcrawler and tossed them out. I immediately hooked a perch and soon we were all hauling in fish. Mabel got the hang of it and even took the perch off the hook and dispatched them with the fish bat. We went through a tub of crawlers and caught over 40 nice perch. She had a great time and looks forward to another trip to Fish Lake soon. This week's photo is of Mabel with one of the perch she caught at Fish Lake.

I had two trips to Banks Lake planned for this week. Unfortunately, the weather caused the cancellation of both trips. I will get there soon though. It is one of my favorite places to fish here in Central Washington. Not only have I had good success here catching walleye and smallmouth bass, but it is also uniquely scenic. I like to take people to Banks that have never seen it before. They are in awe of the basalt cliffs that line the shores, and the views of Steamboat Rock are spectacular. I spend most of my time fishing for walleye from Million Dollar Mile up to Jones Bay. I will not only be describing the locations that my friends and I like to fish on Banks, but details on the methods we use to catch them. Through my videos I hope to give anglers that haven't been to Banks enough information to give them a jump start to successful fishing for walleye.

I have talked about how much fun I have casting for trout in our area streams. The experience puts me in a relaxed state of mind. When I am on the Icicle, upper Entiat or Kettle rivers, I think of nothing else but where to place my next cast. The anticipation of a trout coming up and swatting my fly keeps me in focus and in the moment like nothing else. When I tell people about how much I love fly fishing, some of them remark that it sounds like something that would take a lot of time to learn and could be costly. The truth is that casting flies on small streams doesn't require sophisticated casting technique and a fly rod, reel and floating line really doesn't cost more than to get set up for fishing for salmon on Columbia River. Like many fly fishers that have been at it for years, I have a huge number of flies that I have collected for all types of fly fishing, from trout to steelhead and even bonefish and tarpon. To effectively fish our small streams though you can fish on all of them with only a Parachute Adams, Elk Hair Caddis, Stimulator and a Renegade. My brother in law Tom Verschuren fished the Icicle last weekend and reported that the steam is in ideal shape for easy wading and fun fishing.

I ended my sockeye season on Lake Wenatchee last week and brought my boat home. Now the work starts. Before I can get ready for another fishery I need to first get my sockeye gear sorted out. There are broken leaders scattered in the gunnel trays, lead balls to be sorted by size, rods to be stored, and the overall clutter cleaned up. The deck of my boat is surprisingly clean, mainly due to the excellent washdown system in this Smoker Craft. It took a while to sort out all the sockeye gear, and it is important that it goes somewhere that I can find it when the season comes up next year. I am used to switching out gear to change what I need for different fisheries. I will be loading my walleye gear into the boat. My friend Brian Nielson is going to help me do videos on some of the best places to fish for walleye on Banks Lake and Potholes Reservoir.

I am really eager to do some walleye fishing, and to do some videos on where to catch them. Look for some new shows to watch very soon!

Unconditional Love Leads the Way
OPERATION DOG TAG
DOGS 4 VETS BY VETS

OPERATION DOG TAG

OperationDogTag.org

Operation Dog Tag (ODT) is a non-profit organization that provides training aid and guidance in the service dog community for veterans. These service dogs are a vital importance to a disabled veteran's rehabilitation back into today's society. With ODT bringing training to the service dog, veteran alike. The need for a building is vital to the success of this program. I know from my own personal disabilities that having a dog around can help with some of the invisible pains that a human can't sense. The dog can tell when you are anxious or upset and can provide a sense of comfort. Some veterans like me have horrible vivid dreams known as night terrors. With my own personal problems of sleep apnea, my dog will wake me up when I stop breathing while I sleep. So I believe that a good service dog that has been trained by ODT will help his/her veteran through the process of dealing with the stressors of TBI (Traumatic brain injury) and PTSD (Post traumatic stress disorder). Along with veterans who have lost arms or legs the service dog can help them with reaching or grabbing items, turning on light switches, opening doors, and protection. To provide a service to our veterans in this nature, is not a question of should but when can we start this process to get a good man and his program up and running... so thank you for your time.

Michael Carroll, Spokane Veteran's Court Mentor, VSO, Point Man International Ministries, WWP Alumni, American Legion District 8 Service Officer, Veteran Outreach Center volunteer. Army spc. 1/4 ADA Battalion Iraq 2003-2004

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF OPERATION DOG TAG

Operation Dog Tag is a non-profit organization dedicated to training dogs for combat Veterans. Then in turn, training those Vets to train other dogs for other Vets. Having a dog has been proven to help with rehabilitation & many

Veterans in our area are in desperate need. The Veterans are given these dogs at no cost. So please help us help our Veterans by donating Pointman Int'l Ministries (DBA Operation Dog Tag) Joe Scheffer, Director PO Box 1892, Deer Park, WA 99006 509-276-4364 (leave message)

Dedicated to all men and women who served in combat and their families who love them. Operation Dog Tag wishes to educate the community of their purpose and asks for help in aiding the returning Veterans along with the ones that are already struggling at home.

And we Veterans thank you as we continue "Making Man's Best Friend Even Better For A Veteran"

HOW TO: Secure Your Load for Safer Roads

Unsecured loads cause 300 crashes in Washington every year and contribute to roadside litter - you can help change that.

STOCK UP

Keep cargo nets, tarps, ropes, bungee cords, or straps in your truck to make sure you always have what you need to secure your cargo. You may need tie down hooks or eye bolts on your vehicle as well.

STRAP DOWN

Securely fasten all large items directly to your vehicle, including tarps and covers.

SEAL TIGHT AND COVER

Make sure boxes, bags, and garbage cans are tightly closed and strapped down or covered to keep contents from blowing away.

GET ORGANIZED

Lay tall items flat and put lighter cargo at the bottom of the load so heavier objects can hold them down.

FOLLOW THROUGH

Run straps through and around items - especially large items like hand trucks, ladders, furniture, and mattresses.

TIDY UP

Remove any loose pieces of trash from your truck, trailer, or boat that could blow out while driving.

CHECK REGULARLY

Nothing you're hauling should be able to slide, shift, or fall out. If you hear whipping or rattling sounds while driving, stop in a safe place and check your cargo.

DOES A BUYER HAVE A RECOURSE?

With most home purchases the buyer negotiates the opportunity to perform a final walk through of the property prior to the actual closing of the transaction in order to determine whether the property is in the same condition that it was when the buyer first looked at the property. Most of the time, the final walk through goes smoothly because most sellers are careful to leave the property in good condition, but there are times when the buyer finds items in disrepair with damage caused by the move such as holes in walls and scratches on railings.

Sometimes there are hidden defects that are suddenly apparent, such as stains in carpet that had been covered by throw rugs. Sometimes items that were listed to remain with the property are missing, such as drapes, blinds, appliances or even light bulbs.

In the standard Realtor® generated form (22D), there is a clause that states; "If a system or appliance (including, but not limited to plumbing, heat, electrical, and all Included items) becomes inoperative or malfunctions prior to Closing, Seller shall either repair, or replace the same with a system or appliance of at least equal quality. Buyer reserves the right to reinspect the Property within 5 days prior to Closing to verify that Seller has complied with this paragraph. Buyer and Seller understand and agree that the Listing Broker and Selling Broker shall not be liable for the foregoing or Seller's breach of this paragraph."

So what if the buyer doesn't do the walk through or misses an item in a walk through that is defective. Does that mean that they have no recourse? No! They do have recourse, but they have lost the leverage they had prior to the closing and funding. Since the closing is completed they must rely on the good will of the seller, or they are compelled to take them to court for resolution.

In many cases the defects are minor enough that the buyer just takes the lumps because it is too bothersome to go to court. When such a situation occurs, the first call the buyer makes is usually to their broker. For the sake of good will, the broker usually tries to initiate and facilitate a conversation between the buyer and the seller when there are after-closing issues, but the brokers are not obligated by law or duty to enforce the contract.

Taking control of YOUR WILDFIRE RISK

What Is the Fire Problem?

Every year, devastating wildfires burn across the United States. At the same time, a growing number of people are living where wildfires are a real risk. While these fires will continue to happen, there are things you can do to protect your home and neighborhood as well as your family's safety. NFPA® has found that in many cases of home destruction during wildfires, the homes were more flammable than the surrounding brush and trees. By taking action now, before a fire starts, you can increase your chances of having a ignition resistant home and community.

What Can Be Done About It?

Research shows that embers (burning pieces of airborne wood and/or vegetation that can be carried more mile through the wind) and small surface fires are the primary source of home ignitions during wildfires. To make your home safer, you need to prepare it to withstand embers and flames or surface fire from touching the home or any attachments. You can do this by limiting the amount of flammable vegetation, choosing ignition-resistant building materials and construction techniques, and conducting periodic outdoor maintenance within the three home ignition zones (HIZ).

Learn more about the HIZ at Firewise.org

WORKING WITH NEIGHBORS

Home ignition zones often overlap onto adjacent properties. This makes the conditions of neighboring homes and vegetation a part of the wildfire threat. It's extremely important that neighbors work collaboratively with each other—and talk with each other—to reduce their shared risk.

FIREWISE USA® PROGRAM

Firewise USA® is a voluntary program that provides a framework to help neighbors get organized, find direction, and take action to increase the ignition resistance of their homes and community.

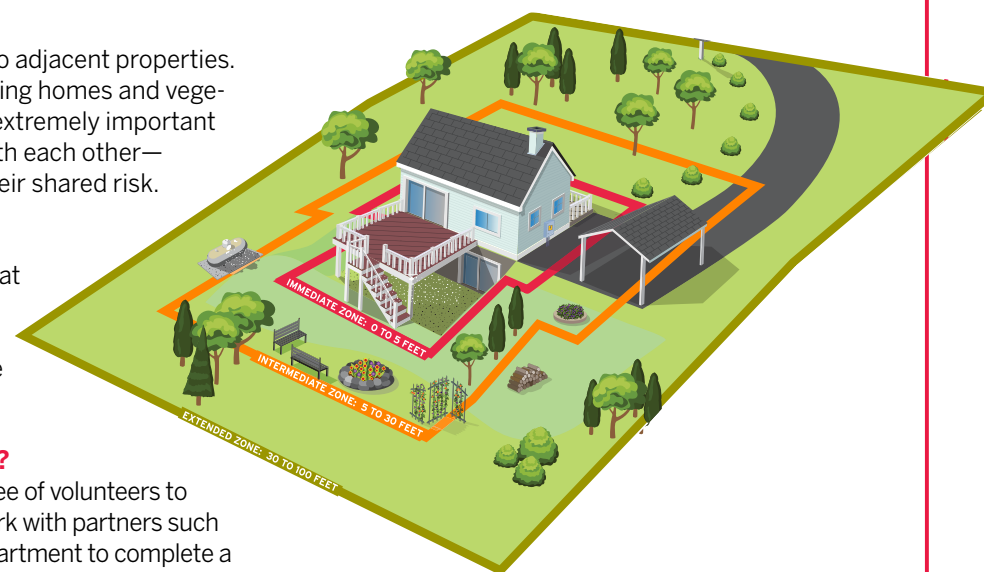

HOW DOES THE PROGRAM WORK?

Organize it: Create a board or committee of volunteers to represent your community. They will work with partners such as local forestry agencies or the fire department to complete a wildfire risk assessment and present it to the community.

Plan it: The wildfire risk assessment should highlight recommendations for action. From this risk assessment, the board will identify and prioritize action items for reducing ignition risk to homes. This action plan may span several years.

Do it: Host an outreach event and work with neighbors on addressing items in the action plan.

Tell us about it: New and renewal applications can be completed at portal.firewise.org. Tell us about the actions and efforts in your community to engage residents and complete mitigation work at the home level.

VISIT FIREWISE.ORG TO:

- » Find tools to organize your community
- » Download and share research fact sheets on wildfire and home construction
- » Hear from other residents about importance of work at the home and community level
- » Learn the basics of wildfire and what actions to take around your homes

DRIVING THE AMERICAN DREAM: 1970's CAR DESIGN AT MAC

SPOKANE — The Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture has turned its main gallery into a retro car emporium for the exhibition, Driving the American Dream: 1970s Car Design. This journey back to the 1970s showcases the distinctive car designs that emerged during a pivotal era in American automotive history.

The exhibit can be visited until Sept. 8. The 1960s marked an unprecedented time in automotive innovation, with American car companies vying for supremacy in horsepower, size, and luxury. But the flamboyance of the '60s gave way to a less prosperous decade influenced by Watergate, fiscal stagnation, and the energy crisis. By the early 1970s, U.S. government regulations on fuel economy and emissions forced American automakers to downsize their models and reduce horsepower.

"The 1970s were years of general malaise for the U.S. automotive industry," said Cory Komberec, curator of the exhibition. "Asian and European cars were already smaller, more efficient, and generally better-built than their U.S. counterparts, so sales of American cars slumped."

Driving the American Dream is a show-room-sized retrospective of '70s cars, now appreciated as true classics and iconic symbols of an era deeply ingrained in America's collective consciousness.

Featured Cars:

- 1969 Mercury Cougar XR7 convertible
- 1969 Lincoln Continental Mark III
- 1970 Chevrolet Chevelle convertible
- 1971 Dodge Charger
- 1972 DeTomaso Pantera
- 1972 Volkswagen Super Beetle
- 1973 Mercury Cougar XR7
- 1974 Datsun 240Z

Exhibition curator and photography is by Cory Komberec and exhibition design by local artist Chris Bovey.

The Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture is located at 2316 West First Ave. in Spokane and further information can be found by visiting NorthwestMuseum.org.

The Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture will show off a unique exhibit of 1970s cars called Driving the American Dream through Sept. 8. Mac Photo

FESTIVAL OF SPEED AT QLISPE, AUG. 30-SEPT. 1

AIRWAY HEIGHTS — Qlispe Raceway — formerly Spokane Raceway Park/Spokane County Raceway — will present its biggest road course event of the season with the running of the 13th annual Festival of Speed, Aug. 30 – Sept. 1 of the 2.25-mile track.

"This year BMW of Spokane is our main sponsor, and our focus is on the PRO3 racing series, which will be racing all that weekend," spokesperson John Barlow wrote in an email.

As with past events the FOS has a charitable beneficiary, Children's Cancer Coalition (Formerly known as ACCOIN). Further info on that group is available at www.CCCNW.org.

First run in 2011 the FOS has showcased many different sports car classes and under guidance of a local club, Northwest Motorsports, who is running the racing portion.

The FOS organizers are backing way from racing to concentrate on behind-the-scenes activities.

"We are doing food trucks, an expected 500-600 trackside car show, and a BBQ dinner in the evening," Barlow said.

Racing runs Friday - Sunday from 8 a.m. until about 3:30-4:30. The Spokane Festival of Speed event is Saturday only with the car show running from noon to about 8 p.m.

Visit www.SpokaneFestivalofSpeed.org for complete details.

Some of the racing action from a past Festival of Speed.

2ND HOWARD SPAIN MEMORIAL RACE IS AUG. 31.

DEER PARK — The memory of a popular drag racer will be honored on Saturday, Aug. 31 and money raised in the second annual Howard Spain Memorial Race.

The event, which will be staged at the old Deer Park drag strip will be limited to just 50 racers with the entry fee of $150 per car.

Pre-registration is required and can be done on Facebook through EPCRacing.com.

Gates open at 9 a.m. The entry gate is on the left at the end of Missile Site Road.

According to a Facebook post, "Howard Spain aka Howie, was not just a great friend, he was a great racer."

Spain is described as a guy on and off the track that would help anyone at any time.

"He touched many races and people have a lot of respect for him in his community in Kalispell, Mont. running Howie's Tire Shop in Whitefish."

Spain knew everyone in the Kalispell/Whitefish area as he was born and grew up in the community. "We can't say how much his friendship meant to so many of us, this is why we race in his name."

The first memorial raised $15,000 for the family to cover services.

Howard Spain's race car. A fundraiser to help the family following his death in 2023 will take place at the old Deer Park Drag Strip, Aug. 31. It is limited to just 50 entries. Howard Spain family photo
