NOXIOUS WEEDS

What is a Noxious Weed? They are non-native plants that have been introduced to Spokane County through human actions. Because of their aggressive growth and lack of natural enemies, these species can be destructive, competitive, and difficult to control.

WHITE BRYONY

WHITE BRYONY (BRYONIA ALBA)

This perennial is a toxic vine that grows 12 or more feet long. Leaves are triangular with broadly toothed edges. Always wear gloves and protective clothing when working with White Bryony as all parts of the plant are toxic! Hand pulling these weeds is not enough as their roots dig into the ground for inches. When removing make sure to go a couple of inches below the surface to ensure the roots are removed.

For More Information on how to Control your Noxious Weeds, Contact:
Spokane County Noxious Weed Control Board

Fires of 1910

Throughout the summer of 1910, hundreds of small fires broke out in northern Idaho, western Montana and eastern Montana. For almost a week in mid-August the town of Wallace was encircled with fires, but they were miles from the city and any real danger seemed remote. However, as the week of August 14 came to a close conditions became very threatening. Fragments of burning timbers began to fall in the streets and on top of buildings. On Saturday afternoon, August 20 the wind began to blow in all directions. By evening residents of Wallace saw for the first time flames over the top of the mountains advancing towards the city. Shortly before 9:00 in the evening a large fireball fell on a wooden building near Bank Street. The flames leaped across the street to the Michigan Hotel and within a few minutes the entire east end of Wallace was burning. Before fire could be stopped, more than 100 buildings were destroyed with an estimated loss of over one million dollars.

You make plans and then Mother Nature steps in and throws a kink in it. I was planning to fish Banks Lake last week, but it didn't happen. Instead of two trips to Banks Lake I wound up fishing much closer to home and having a great time anyway.

I told you my daughter Whitney loves to fish Banks Lake. She has great luck catching walleye and smallmouth bass. She also likes to take swim breaks while we are on the water, and that was the plan for last weekend. However, it poured down rain on Saturday, so we had to come up with something else to do. We went to the Pybus Farmer's Market and got some Quincy corn and Manila clams for dinner. Then we drove to Sunnyslope to visit Ohme Gardens, something she has wanted to do for years. The rain held off long enough for us to explore this very special place with vistas of the Wenatchee Valley. On Sunday I took her to Fish Lake. We had fished here before, but never for perch. I picked a spot out in the middle of the lower end of the lake, and we tossed out our hooks baited with chunks of nightcrawler. There were plenty of perch around and she had a blast. The sun came out, the wind died down, and we watched both a bald eagle and ospreys pluck fish from the lake. I sent her home with a bag of perch fillets for dinner—Yum!

Mabel Jima was visiting her grandparents, Tom and Diane Verschuren, who live in Dryden, and I wanted to take her fishing while she was here. This 10-year-old is an accomplished angler who catches fish from the dock at her home on Lake Sammamish. Fish Lake is close to our home in Leavenworth, and I figured we could entertain her with perch fishing. It was a bit breezy when we arrived at the lake, but nothing like what I had been dealing with on Lake Wenatchee during sockeye season. I drove the boat out to where I usually find schools of perch, and looked and looked but didn't really find anything. Finally, I just shut down the big motor and put the bow mount down on Anchor Mode. We baited our hooks with pieces of nightcrawler and tossed them out. I immediately hooked a perch and soon we were all hauling in fish. Mabel got the hang of it and even took the perch off the hook and dispatched them with the fish bat. We went through a tub of crawlers and caught over 40 nice perch. She had a great time and looks forward to another trip to Fish Lake soon. This week's photo is of Mabel with one of the perch she caught at Fish Lake.

I had two trips to Banks Lake planned for this week. Unfortunately, the weather caused the cancellation of both trips. I will get there soon though. It is one of my favorite places to fish here in Central Washington. Not only have I had good success here catching walleye and smallmouth bass, but it is also uniquely scenic. I like to take people to Banks that have never seen it before. They are in awe of the basalt cliffs that line the shores, and the views of Steamboat Rock are spectacular. I spend most of my time fishing for walleye from Million Dollar Mile up to Jones Bay. I will not only be describing the locations that my friends and I like to fish on Banks, but details on the methods we use to catch them. Through my videos I hope to give anglers that haven't been to Banks enough information to give them a jump start to successful fishing for walleye.

I have talked about how much fun I have casting for trout in our area streams. The experience puts me in a relaxed state of mind. When I am on the Icicle, upper Entiat or Kettle rivers, I think of nothing else but where to place my next cast. The anticipation of a trout coming up and swatting my fly keeps me in focus and in the moment like nothing else. When I tell people about how much I love fly fishing, some of them remark that it sounds like something that would take a lot of time to learn and could be costly. The truth is that casting flies on small streams doesn't require sophisticated casting technique and a fly rod, reel and floating line really doesn't cost more than to get set up for fishing for salmon on Columbia River. Like many fly fishers that have been at it for years, I have a huge number of flies that I have collected for all types of fly fishing, from trout to steelhead and even bonefish and tarpon. To effectively fish our small streams though you can fish on all of them with only a Parachute Adams, Elk Hair Caddis, Stimulator and a Renegade. My brother in law Tom Verschuren fished the Icicle last weekend and reported that the steam is in ideal shape for easy wading and fun fishing.

I ended my sockeye season on Lake Wenatchee last week and brought my boat home. Now the work starts. Before I can get ready for another fishery I need to first get my sockeye gear sorted out. There are broken leaders scattered in the gunnel trays, lead balls to be sorted by size, rods to be stored, and the overall clutter cleaned up. The deck of my boat is surprisingly clean, mainly due to the excellent washdown system in this Smoker Craft. It took a while to sort out all the sockeye gear, and it is important that it goes somewhere that I can find it when the season comes up next year. I am used to switching out gear to change what I need for different fisheries. I will be loading my walleye gear into the boat. My friend Brian Nielson is going to help me do videos on some of the best places to fish for walleye on Banks Lake and Potholes Reservoir.

I am really eager to do some walleye fishing, and to do some videos on where to catch them. Look for some new shows to watch very soon!

DRIVING THE AMERICAN DREAM: 1970's CAR DESIGN AT MAC

SPOKANE — The Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture has turned its main gallery into a retro car emporium for the exhibition, Driving the American Dream: 1970s Car Design. This journey back to the 1970s showcases the distinctive car designs that emerged during a pivotal era in American automotive history.

The exhibit can be visited until Sept. 8. The 1960s marked an unprecedented time in automotive innovation, with American car companies vying for supremacy in horsepower, size, and luxury. But the flamboyance of the '60s gave way to a less prosperous decade influenced by Watergate, fiscal stagnation, and the energy crisis. By the early 1970s, U.S. government regulations on fuel economy and emissions forced American automakers to downsize their models and reduce horsepower.

"The 1970s were years of general malaise for the U.S. automotive industry," said Cory Komberec, curator of the exhibition. "Asian and European cars were already smaller, more efficient, and generally better-built than their U.S. counterparts, so sales of American cars slumped."

Driving the American Dream is a show-room-sized retrospective of '70s cars, now appreciated as true classics and iconic symbols of an era deeply ingrained in America's collective consciousness.

Featured Cars:

- 1969 Mercury Cougar XR7 convertible
- 1969 Lincoln Continental Mark III
- 1970 Chevrolet Chevelle convertible
- 1971 Dodge Charger
- 1972 DeTomaso Pantera
- 1972 Volkswagen Super Beetle
- 1973 Mercury Cougar XR7
- 1974 Datsun 240Z

Exhibition curator and photography is by Cory Komberec and exhibition design by local artist Chris Bovey.

The Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture is located at 2316 West First Ave. in Spokane and further information can be found by visiting NorthwestMuseum.org.

FESTIVAL OF SPEED AT QLISPE, AUG. 30-SEPT. 1

AIRWAY HEIGHTS — Qlipse Raceway — formerly Spokane Raceway Park/Spokane County Raceway — will present its biggest road course event of the season with the running of the 13th annual Festival of Speed, Aug. 30 – Sept. 1 of the 2.25-mile track.

"This year BMW of Spokane is our main sponsor, and our focus is on the PRO3 racing series, which will be racing all that weekend," spokesperson John Barlow wrote in an email.

As with past events the FOS has a charitable beneficiary, Children's Cancer Coalition (Formerly known as ACCOIN). Further info on that group is available at www.CCCNW.org.

First run in 2011 the FOS has showcased many different sports car classes and under guidance of a local club, Northwest Motorsports, who is running the racing portion.

The FOS organizers are backing way from racing to concentrate on behind-the-scenes activities.

"We are doing food trucks, an expected 500-600 trackside car show, and a BBQ dinner in the evening," Barlow said.

Racing runs Friday - Sunday from 8 a.m. until about 3:30-4:30. The Spokane Festival of Speed event is Saturday only with the car show running from noon to about 8 p.m.

Visit www.SpokaneFestivalofSpeed.org for complete details.

2ND HOWARD SPAIN MEMORIAL RACE IS AUG. 31.

DEER PARK — The memory of a popular drag racer will be honored on Saturday, Aug. 31 and money raised in the second annual Howard Spain Memorial Race.

The event, which will be staged at the old Deer Park drag strip will be limited to just 50 racers with the entry fee of $150 per car.

Pre-registration is required and can be done on Facebook through EPCRacing.com. Gates open at 9 a.m. The entry gate is on the left at the end of Missile Site Road.

According to a Facebook post, "Howard Spain aka Howie, was not just a great friend, he was a great racer."

Spain is described as a guy on and off the track that would help anyone at any time.

"He touched many races and people have a lot of respect for him in his community in Kalispell, Mont. running Howie's Tire Shop in Whitefish."

Spain knew everyone in the Kalispell/Whitefish area as he was born and grew up in the community. "We can't say how much his friendship meant to so many of us, this is why we race in his name."

The first memorial raised $15,000 for the family to cover services.

PLANTING & DIVIDING

Plant spring-flowering bulbs. The rule of thumb is to plant bulbs 2.5 times deeper than they are wide. You can plant and transplant trees and shrubs as well as dig & divide perennial herbs and flowers.

GARDEN MAINTENANCE

To protect tender plants from the damage of early frost and extend the harvest for veggies, cover beds with burlap, boxes, blankets or even newspaper! Prune shrubs and vines to allow airflow in the winter.

LAWN & GRASS

The first 2 weeks are an excellent time to put in a new lawn. Cool weather with rainfall is ideal for grass seeds to germinate and become established. This is also a good time to core aerate existing lawns.

FIREWOOD PREP

Green firewood can harbor beetles that pose threats to garden trees. Eliminate beetles by piling wood into stacks no larger than 4x4x4. Cover with clear plastic or bury the edges and tape the seams.

HOW TO IMPROVE THE ODDS OF AN OFFER

Price it right.

Set a price at the lower end of your property's realistic price range.

Consider:

- Comparable properties: A "comp" is what real estate professionals call home sales that can be reasonably used to help determine the price of your home. But just because you're in the same neighborhood doesn't mean that the houses will sell for the same amount. Your real estate professional will help you determine how to compare your home in terms of size, upkeep, and amenities.
- Competition: How many other houses are for sale in your area right now? Are you competing against new homes or condos for sale in the area?
- Contingencies: Do you have special needs that might turn away buyers? A common one is refusing to be flexible about a moving date.
- Asking a lender: Since most buyers will need a mortgage, the home's sale price should be in line with a lender's estimate of its value.
- Accuracy: Studies show homes priced more than 3% over the correct price take longer to sell.

Prepare for visitors.

Get your house market-ready at least 2 weeks before you begin showing it. Make all your repairs, and then do a deep clean (or hire a cleaning service to help).

Consider an appraisal.

For a few hundred dollars, a qualified appraiser can give you an estimate of your home's value. This is useful for sellers going through a divorce or needing to divide the proceeds for other reasons. Be sure to ask for a market-value appraisal, and find someone who understands the area and type of home you have. Your agent should be able to offer recommendations.

Be flexible about showings.

Spur-of-the-moment showings are disruptive, and making sure your home is constantly ready to show can be exhausting. But the more amenable you can be, the sooner you'll find a buyer.

Anticipate the offers.

Decide in advance the price range and terms that are acceptable. Be clear with yourself and your agent about what kind of offers you're comfortable with. It's critical to know what price you'll accept before entering negotiations with a potential buyer.

Don't refuse to drop the price.

If your home has been on the market for more than 30 days without an offer, be prepared to at least consider lowering your asking price.
