PEOPLE OF RATHDRUM OR ANYONE WHO CAN
I need your help, I met & talked with a lady July 10 at Parker Subaru. She's from Rathdrum, has a 2017 Subaru, was having it diagnosed for a problem, it was something different than she thought it might be, her son was going to fix it. If you think you might know who this could be, please ask them to contact me at meinchattwa@yahoo.com

Fishing Magician

Dave Jones

Reach Dave @ www.FishingMagician.com or FishBoy@nwi.net "The Outdoor Insider"

We are in for another spell of hot weather as summer tails off and we look forward to fall. For many this is the best time of year to be out on the water fishing somewhere in the region. Not only can the fishing be excellent for a variety of species on our area lakes, but also the fall salmon fishing gets going in earnest.

I finally made it to Banks Lake. Brian Neilson and Mike Wren met me at the Northrop Boat launch, we decided on a strategy for the day and away we went. We were concerned about the lake level. It was very low for this time of year. Because of this, I had been warned that probably the only usable launches were at Northrup and Coulee Playland. We also noticed that the forecast predicted the possibility of high wind later in the day. Keeping our fingers crossed we ran up to Jones Bay for a quick visit for the video I was doing. Jones is a small, narrow bay that can be very productive. There is a distinct weed line here, and in the spring this can be a good place to troll, even with side planers. Then we stopped at Devils Punch Bowl, and in the video I mentioned the excellent launch at the State Park on Steamboat Rock. We didn't fish these areas, but they need to be included as good places to fish for walleye on Banks. I will remind folks that I did a video earlier this spring on walleye fishing with side planers, and that was shot in Devil's Punch Bowl. We did put our gear out on the back side of Steamboat Rock.

Brian Neilson mentioned that he had found fish here in over 50 feet of water on previous trips to Banks. Turns out he was right about that on this trip, too. Mike Wren landed a 24 inch walleye and minutes later Brian got a 27 inch fish. Not a bad start for the day. Then we made the run over to Barker Flats to include this area in the video, as it is one of the most fished walleye spots on Banks. We only ran at a slow speed over the flats just to see if we could find any walleye. We just didn't see enough fish on the screen to tempt us to put our gear out. Traveling back across the reservoir, we trolled along the sand flats just up lake from "The Poplars". I shot some video so people could recognize that spot, and we landed a few more walleye here. From there I drove the boat further down the lake. I made sure we showed "Rosebush" in the project and then trolled for a while along the Million Dollar Mile. We got some more walleye trolling from the North Million Dollar Mile boat launch up towards Rosebush. We got a couple of smallmouth here, too. Boaters should know that launching is difficult right now, due to the low water. The video I shot has been posted to the Dave Graybill YouTube channel. Look for "Walleye Fishing Hot Spots on Banks Lake". This week's photo is of Brian and Mike holding up the first two fish we landed on Banks that day.

The Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife is seeking public feedback on a proposed change for the yellow perch fishing rule at Fish Lake in Leavenworth. The proposal would erase the current daily fishing limit of 25 yellow perch fish at the lake. The state hopes that this change would increase angler opportunities for harvesting more yellow perch and improve the average size of fish from the lake, according to a press release. Also, there is a proposal for Park, Blue, and Deep lakes in Grant County to extend the current fishing season closure date from Sept. 30 to Oct. 31. This change aims to provide additional angling opportunities during the productive fall trout fishing season. As a part of the rule-making process, WDFW is seeking public comment on the proposal and holding a virtual public meeting. Public comments can be submitted online until the virtual meeting from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Sept. 10.

The Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife wants to remind anglers that the Annual Trout Derby is still going on. The popular tagged trout derby on inland lakes starts with the opening of the lowland lakes in April and runs through October 31st on the lakes that are open in that time frame. There are still lots of great prizes available to be claimed by lucky anglers that catch a tagged trout. To learn more about the derby, log on to the WDFW website and click on Fishing and Shellfishing. Right at the top of the list is the 2024 Trout Derby. Click on this and it will take you to a page with all the details about which lakes have tagged trout in them. You will also learn what to do when you catch a tagged trout to claim your prize.

The next trip I have planned is to fish off the mouth of Crab Creek below Wanapum Dam. This area opens on September 1st every year, and although the number of fall salmon that have passed over Priest Rapids is actually pretty small, it can be surprisingly good. Fall salmon are starting to pour over Bonneville Dam, with over 28,000 counted in one day. What people can expect to catch is a mix of late-arriving summer runs and fall fish. The daily limit here is six fish, with only two adults to be retained. You must release all salmon other than Chinook.

I first fished this area, probably twenty years ago, with Jerrod Gibbons and we were pulling big Mag Warts for our fish. I have also fished here several times with Shane Magnuson, and we have caught some dandies tolling Super Baits. One trip was particularly memorable, as Shane didn't have a net in the boat. I watched him heft several big kings into the boat bare handed!

My fishing partners and I don't really have high expectations for catching a bunch of kings on the opening day of the season off of Crab Creek. It gives us a good reason to get all our gear ready for future trips, and I will be shooting a video to help people who plan to fish this area later in the season. It's going to be great to be back out on the Columbia River!

KLEYN CAPTURES SECOND RACE AT HERMISTON

Hermiston, Oregon — Kasey Kleyn got his Northwest Late Model Series championship ambitions back in gear by winning his fourth race of the season in the Labor Day Spectacular 125 at Hermiston Raceway on Aug. 31.

Ephrata's Kleyn, who took the lead for good on lap 104 finished ahead of Andrew Riehl from Corbett, Oregon and Kennewick's Trace Thompson and were among six drivers completing all 125 laps. Kleyn also won at Hermiston on June 15.

Kleyn, who missed the Aug. 10 race while participating in an ARCA West Race in Tri Cities, entered this race with a 20-point lead in series points over Ken Bonney.

Kleyn collected 59 points for the win while Bonney, who finished 12th, unofficially fell back another 16 with two races remaining, Sept. 14 at Wenatchee and Oct. 6 at Tri City Raceway and the Fall Classic.

STATELINE SPEEDWAY TO UNVEIL NEW MULTI-USE SPORTS FIELD

Post Falls, ID – Stateline Speedway announced the completion of a brand-new multi-use sports field.

The field will host its inaugural event on Sept. 21 with a rugby tournament, marking the beginning of a new era for sports and entertainment at the facility.

The field is located to the west of the main speedway grandstand in an area that formerly featured parking.

"This has been a work in progress for over 4 years now," track general manager Matt Alexander, wrote in an email.

The versatile field is designed to serve a wide range of community needs, from school sports to recreational leagues, local sports clubs, and beyond. In addition to sporting events, the field will be a hub for festivals, concerts, and other community gatherings.

"With the combination of our racetrack and now a multi-use field, the possibilities are endless for the types of events we can host, providing even more family entertainment to our local community," Alexander said.

A ribbon cutting ceremony will be held Friday, Sept. 20, at 4 p.m.

Guess Who?

I am an actor born in Pennsylvania on September 5, 1951. I am the youngest of seven children. I worked as a TV camera operator for a local public television station before becoming a well-known comedic and dramatic actor. I'll soon be reprising a role of a ghost whose name you don't want to say three times.

Answer: Michael Keaton

SELLING A HOME IS EASY!*

*If You Work with a REALTOR®

SOME PEOPLE THINK SELLING A HOME IS AS SIMPLE AS:

- Put a sign in your yard
- Let other real estate agents know
- Patiently wait

BUT THERE'S SO MUCH MORE TO IT!

Some of the things a REALTOR® helps you with include:

PRE-LISTING - YOUR REALTOR® WILL:

- Research sales activity for past 18 months from local broker marketplaces and public records databases.
- Perform exterior curb appeal assessment.
- Address important topics such as odors, clutter, cleanliness, décor neutralization and more.
- Guide on best market pricing position based on current market.

LISTING - YOUR REALTOR® WILL:

- Create detailed list of property amenities.
- Develop and execute marketing plan.
- Coordinate showings with seller and other agents.
- Pull data to compare offers.
- Create plan for pricing strategies accounting for local market conditions.
- Promptly enter price changes on local broker marketplace listing database.
- Prepare contract for buyer.
- Communicate weekly with activity, showings of homes that compete and market movement.
- Follow up with each buyer and agent with timeliness and kindness.
- Have a strong market reputation where agents want to show your home.
- Continue to audit the home to make sure it's market ready.
- Negotiate all offers.

CLOSING - YOUR REALTOR® WILL:

- Help coordinate and review appraisal.
- Audit itemized list of all cost components seller and buyer are to pay.
- Protect trust/earnest money through process.
- Ensure transaction is flowing to avoid unexpected complications.
- Ensure smooth transition with utilities, final walk throughs, inspection repairs and other tasks.
- Coordinate closing process with buyer's agent, lender and closing company.
- Explain technicalities in the final contract.

September GARDENING TIPS

Master Gardeners of Spokane County

PLANTING & DIVIDING

Plant spring-flowering bulbs. The rule of thumb is to plant bulbs 2.5 times deeper than they are wide. You can plant and transplant trees and shrubs as well as dig & divide perennial herbs and flowers.

GARDEN MAINTENANCE

To protect tender plants from the damage of early frost and extend the harvest for veggies, cover beds with burlap, boxes, blankets or even newspaper! Prune shrubs and vines to allow airflow in the winter.

LAWN & GRASS

The first 2 weeks are an excellent time to put in a new lawn. Cool weather with rainfall is ideal for grass seeds to germinate and become established. This is also a good time to core aerate existing lawns.

FIREWOOD PREP

Green firewood can harbor beetles that pose threats to garden trees. Eliminate beetles by piling wood into stacks no larger than 4x4x4. Cover with clear plastic or bury the edges and tape the seams.

THE PROPERTY SELLER BASICS

HOW TO USE FENG SHUI

CONCEPTS IN HOME STAGING

Feng Shui is a Chinese system of beliefs that govern spatial arrangement in relation to the flow of energy or "life force" (known as chi or qi) in a building. Learn how to appeal to buyers who follow such principles.

CHI FLOWS IN.

Pay special attention to the front door, which is considered the "mouth of chi" and one of the most powerful aspects of the entire property. Make sure the area is swept clean and free of cobwebs and clutter. Ensure all lighting is straight and properly hung. Consider lighting the path leading up to the front door to create an inviting atmosphere.

CHI CAN FLOW OUT, TOO.

Energy can be flushed away wherever there are drains in the home. To keep the good forces of a home inside, always keep the toilet seats down and close the doors to bathrooms.

CONSIDER THE BEDROOM CAREFULLY.

The master bed should be in a place of honor, power, and protection. Place it farthest from and facing toward the entryway of the room. The optimal placement is diagonal in the farthest corner of the room. Paint the room in colors that promote serenity, relaxation, and romance, such as soft tones of green, blue, and lavender.

OFFER A FORMAL DINING SPACE.

The dining room symbolizes the energy and power of family togetherness. Make sure the table is clear and uncluttered during showings. Use an attractive tablecloth to enhance the look of the table while also softening sharp corners.

GET A CLEAR PERSPECTIVE.

Windows are considered to be the eyes of the home. Getting your windows professionally cleaned is a good idea anyway, but for buyers, your home will sparkle all the more brightly and your view will be optimally displayed.
