WEEKLY Horoscopes for Sept. 26- Oct. 2

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20
Aries, a difficult problem may require you to take a step back and think about a different approach. Start fresh in a few days.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21
A happy accident reconnects you with someone you haven't seen in quite a while, Taurus. The rekindled relationship may lead to something even more concrete over the coming weeks.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21
Gemini, there is so much going on right now you may feel like your head is spinning. Start dividing your tasks into a more manageable list and see if others can pitch in.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22
Cancer, take a few days to mull over a financial situation that worries you. Is there another way you can approach it? Can you find an influx of capital to make things more manageable?

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23
It is time to make a decision after working through various scenarios, Leo. Plans need to be made and it will take time to sort through all of the details. Everything will work out.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
It's time to be honest with yourself, Virgo. Are you just telling people what they want to hear or are you truly ready to make a change? You may need to prove it to others for them to trust you.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
Libra, share enjoyable experiences with others. Your travels may prove a source of inspiration for others who simply need a nudge to get out of their comfort zones.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
Carefully word your next email or text and read it over several times, Scorpio. There is a fine line between being firm and coming across as domineering. You don't want to offend.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
Sagittarius, a relationship may have ended in one respect, but the connections you share may keep you tied together for some time. Find a way to be friendly and civil at all times.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
Put others first this week, Capricorn. Set aside your own list of tasks and figure out how you can lend a helping hand to a family member or friend.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
Sometimes you need reassurance that you are doing a good job, Aquarius. Rest assured that you are giving it all you have and that has not gone unnoticed.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20
Pisces, it is time to make a decision about an issue with two seemingly good solutions. You've given things ample consideration, so trust your instincts.

"The Outdoor Insider"

The fall Chinook season is going great guns right now. The launch area above the Vernita Bridge looks like a gold rush town. Fishing for kings above Priest Rapids Dam will improve as more fish move upstream, and the opportunity for catching Coho this fall is terrific.

The most popular fishery in Central Washington is in the Hanford Reach for fall Chinook. Every year the number of anglers that fish the stretch of the Columbia River at Vernita is so great that the launch site takes on the look of a small town. Before daybreak there is a long line of trucks and trailers lined up to put boats in the water to fish the many known areas of the river that produce catches of fall Chinook. That's why I will dedicate the Fall issue of my free E-Letter to fishing for fall salmon. In the E-Letter subscribers will find detailed descriptions of the best places to fish, the tackle that is being used by successful anglers and the techniques they use. There will be maps, video information and photos that give anyone who plans to fish the Hanford Reach the best chance for success. In addition to the very detailed feature on fishing the Columbia River for fall salmon, I will also list several of the other opportunities for fall fishing for other species. If you aren't currently receiving the free E-Letter, just go to my website, www.FishingMagician.com, and click on the E-Letter logo on the Home Page.

While putting together the free Fishing Magician E-Letter for Fall, it occurred to me to check on the Coho return to the upper Columbia. I am so glad I did. I pulled up the graph that shows the ten-year average, last year's return and how many fish have passed over Priest Rapids Dam this year. Holy cow! This year's return to the upper Columbia is huge! It could be a record. Coho salmon have been released from the National Fish Hatchery in Leavenworth for several years, thanks to the Yakima Tribe. It looks like their efforts to re-establish Coho in our region have really paid off. Fishing for Coho could be off the charts good this fall, so I am adding information about how to fish for them in my Fall E-Letter. I landed my first Coho while fishing the Icicle just below the hatchery back in 2021, and there will be a lot more of them this year. I bet fishing for Coho is going to be great in the main stem Columbia off the mouth of the Wenatchee River. We need more water in the Icicle before the fish will move into this area. This week's photo is of the first Coho I caught on the Icicle River a few years ago.

I mentioned in one of my reports last week that I expected to hear about the opening of Coho season on the Icicle River very soon, and it happened. Anglers will be able to fish the very popular area of the Icicle that is 500 feet below the Leavenworth National Fish Hatchery, and it seems like, an area further upstream that I don't recall being open before. That area is from the shoreline markers where Cyo Road intersects the Icicle at the Sleeping Lady Resort to the Icicle Peshastin Irrigation Footbridge, approximately 750 feet upstream from the Snow Lakes Trailhead. Also, the minimum size of the Coho you can retain is 12 inches. Fishing with bait, including scents and flavors is prohibited. There is a night closure in effect as well. Barbed hooks are allowed, but not the two pole endorsement. The river level in the Icicle is like last year at this time. We will need some rain and colder weather to raise the level of the river to encourage fish to move up the Wenatchee and into the Icicle.

The news about the Coho season in our region just gets better and better.

The Icicle River opened to fishing recently, and so did fishing for Coho on the main stem Columbia River. You can now keep Coho from Priest Rapids Dam all the way up to Bridgeport. Like the Icicle the daily limit is two adult Coho. If you haven't tried fishing for Coho, you may want to get a copy of my free E-Letter for fall fishing. I cover fishing for Chinook in the Hanford Reach, as usual, and I have added several pages dedicated to fishing for Coho.

If you aren't on the list to receive the E-Letters, just go the fishing magician website and click on the logo at the top left-hand side of the Home Page. I'll make sure you get a copy.

You will find that fishing for these Coho isn't that difficult, and the numbers that we expect to return to our area are huge. If you haven't tried it this would be the year to do it.

In a recent report I talked about the opportunity to see Sockeye salmon on their spawning beds in the White River. The record return of these fish to Lake Wenatchee has created viewing of them nothing short of spectacular. There are thousands of them on the gravel bars of the White River. I found an excellent place to see them that is about 3.5 miles above the bridge where you turn to go up the gravel road on the south side of the stream. There are a couple of other great places to see returning salmon very soon. My wife and I visit a deep hole below the bridge near the old campground in Tumwater Canyon. There is a pull out on the right-hand side of the road and a short walk next to the highway to see Chinook salmon resting in this deep pool.

A while ago I was passing through Brewster and decided to visit Mike Mauk at the Brewster Bait & Tackle Shop. I thought I would find things anglers would use to catch Chinook in the Brewster Pool. There is a great selection of this type of gear, and a whole lot more. He has tackle for every kind of fishing we have in this area. Also, he sent me a note recently letting me know that he now stocks nightcrawlers from Andy the Worm Guy. Stop by, you'll be surprised.

NW MOTORSPORTS Report

"Going fast is your job...Telling people about it is ours...!"

LAKE CHELAN HOSTS 'MAHOGANY & MERLOT' OCT. 4-6

Chelan, Wash. — Mahogany & Merlot Vintage Hydroplane and Boat Show is an annual 'on-the-water' boat show and free family-friendly event! Each year they showcase Vintage Unlimited Hydroplanes Antique & Classic Mahogany Runabouts from the Golden Era of pleasure boating. See them running exhibitions all weekend long, Oct. 4-6.

Imagine a dozen big Unlimiteds thundering through the waters, recreating the action of earlier years. We are talking about boats like Miss Wahoo, Miss Budweiser, Miss Burien, Miss Thriftway, Atlas Van Lines, Pay 'n Pak and the newly restored Notre Dame! These same raceboats, now beautifully restored and preserved, will return to Lake Chelan this October. Hydro exhibition races will begin early Friday morning (weather permitting!) and continue on Saturday and Sunday mornings.

You will also have the opportunity to purchase a "Pit Pass" to enter Thunder Alley presented by the Hydroplane & Raceboat Museum so you can get up close to the boats and talk to the crews!

On Saturday only, Mahogany & Merlot will once again continue along 'Mahogany Row' at Don Morse Park & Marina on beautiful Lake Chelan. Presented by the PNW Chapter of the Antique & Classic Boat Society, meticulously restored Antique & Classic Mahogany Chris-Crafts, Centurys, Gar Woods and other makes from a bygone era will line the docks for your viewing and voting pleasure.

In between looking at all the hydroplanes and boats, browse through our Vendor Village presented by The Hydroplane & Raceboat Museum, with vendors offering an array of art, crafts, local produce, gifts, clothing, one of a kind items, vintage goodies and more. Don't forget - you can also enjoy all the action from our beautiful Lakefront Beer & Wine Garden!

There is so much to do at Mahogany & Merlot! Make plans now to come and enjoy a perfect weekend with the perfect entertainment. MahoganyAndMerlot.com

BE FEATURED IN A "CHAMPION'S PROFILE"

Each year the for the past several decades the NW Motorsports Report has shown the spotlight on racing champions with profiles on point leaders.

Now, as the 2024 season is wrapping up it is time for an entirely new collection of profiles.

You will be able to appear in tens of thousands copies of The Exchange classified paper that is circulated across Eastern Washington, Lewiston Clarkston Valley, North Idaho & Wenatchee/ Moses Lake areas to tell your story — and give your sponsors added exposure.

Champion's profiles are run at no charge so make sure you email nwmotorsports-report@gmail.com or text 509-220-8018 for details on how to promote your stellar season.

Here's what a typical Champion's Profile might look like.
