Guess Who?

I am an actress born in Minnesota on October 29, 1971. I had a breakout role in a Tim Burton film about a pesky ghost, and then had a string of hits through the 90s. I was out of the spotlight for awhile, and have since turned up on a popular Netflix series. I will soon reprise a popular role in another ghost movie installment.

Answer: Winona Ryder

WEEKLY Horoscopes for Oct. 31 - Nov. 6

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20
Your energy levels are soaring this week, Aries. Channel this vitality into a new project or personal goal. Be cautious of being too impulsive, and think things through before acting.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21
Embrace flexibility in your personal life, Taurus. Being open to change will lead to unexpected opportunities and strengthen your relationships. There are a few surprises ahead.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21
Communication is key for you this week, Gemini. You may find that your words carry extra weight and influence. Use this to your advantage at work and in your personal life.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22
Cancer, focus on behind-the-scenes work around the office — it's not always about being in the spotlight that gets you ahead. All of your contributions are valuable.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23
Leo, embrace your natural charisma and confidence, but also remember to show appreciation for the people who support you. Balance is key in all social situations this week.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
It is time to get organized, Virgo. Tackle any lingering tasks or projects that need your attention. Your meticulous attention to detail will serve you well as you bring order to things.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
Libra, focus on finding harmony in your relationships this week. You might need to mediate conflicts or offer support to loved ones. Use your diplomatic skills to create balance.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
Trust your instincts when making decisions, especially those related to work or personal projects, Scorpio. Your intuition is pretty sharp this week, so use it to your advantage.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
Sagittarius, adventure is calling out to you. Whether it's a spontaneous trip or exploring a new hobby, embrace opportunities to expand your horizons.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
Capricorn, your dedication and hard work are likely to be recognized, leading to potential advancement or new opportunities. Just wait for all of the exciting things to come your way.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
Use creative energy to explore new ideas or tackle creative projects, Aquarius. When you interact with others, you also may gain some fresh ideas to use to your advantage.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20
Pisces, this week calls for reflection and healing. Take time to address any emotional needs and seek support if you want to talk to someone or simply need another be close to you.

Although many boaters have tucked their boats away for the winter, there are still die-hard anglers out there that know there is great fishing to be had, even in the colder months of the year. I keep my boat ready to go as long as I can, knowing that there is terrific fishing available on the lakes and rivers of our region, and I have a bag packed with shore fishing gear if I choose to fish from shore.

Potholes Reservoir can be great for Walleye in the Fall. It seems to be getting off to a slow start though. One day it's very slow and the next better, but not great. I know it will turn on sometime this Fall and early Winter, and I want to be there when it does. I've had some great days Walleye fishing when it's chilly. What is most consistent on Potholes right now is the fishing for big Bluegill and Crappie. Every time I have been out on Potholes, I will see boats anchored and getting plenty of fish. What they are doing is locating one of the many habitat boxes on the bottom, anchoring and casting to it. These habitat boxes are scattered throughout the reservoir and were placed to promote the survival of young Crappie, Bluegill and Perch. Some of the biggest Bluegill I have ever seen have come from Potholes, and Crappie are abundant. You can catch some nice Perch doing this, too. I am sure that the Walleye fishing will turn on this Fall and early Winter on Potholes. In the meantime, you can have great time catching these other spiny rays.

This time of year, I often choose to fish from the shore at several locations in our region. Rainbow trout and Triploid rainbow trout are my target, and the possibility of landing some really big fish is very good. Once again, the Colville Tribe has released over 45,000 triploids into Rufus Woods. These fish went into the reservoir in the Spring and with the growth rate of these fish anglers can realistically expect to catch trout weighing 4 to 6 pounds now, and the possibility of getting one that weighs double digits is very real. Most anglers will fish Rufus Woods at the public accesses above Chief Joseph Dam or at my favorite spot, Brandts Landing. Fishing from shore at the middle net pens is very popular, even though this requires a Tribal Access permit. I also like to fish Lake Roosevelt from shore. Near Coulee Dam I fish at Crescent Beach or Spring Canyon. I also fish from shore at Keller. The trout I catch on Lake Roosevelt average 16 to 20 inches. At all of these locations I use the same method. A sliding slip sinker rig with the hook baited with ether Power Bait, a marshmallow and shrimp or nightcrawler combo.

Well, the Fall fishery in our area of the Hanford Reach is closed, and the Steelhead fishing isn't all that great yet. But I am seeing some reports of the coho fishing on the Icicle showing limits being taken. I frequently check on the Icicle, as it is so close to my home. It was just a few days ago that I saw the first coho roll in the stretch of river that is just below the hatchery. I have seen a couple of fish near the handicapped platform and a bright fish on the bottom that was either released or died for some reason. We had some periods of rain a few days ago, and more to come in the forecasts. The little rain we've had moved some fish into the Icicle, but we need a lot more to see the big numbers of fish that are still waiting in the Columbia or lower Wenatchee rivers.

Sometimes I just jump in my truck and head out without a rod or a boat in tow. I took a drive up to Fish Lake, knowing that this is the time of year to witness the change of season in all its glory. The Fall colors are in full bloom and the lake is at its scenic height. It really is something to see. On my way home through Tumwater Canyon and I passed at least six photographers that were capturing the foliage in the vibrant golds, reds and bronze that comes with Fall. The next time I visit Fish Lake I will have my boat in tow. I have caught the biggest Largemouth Bass of the year in October on the lake. It is also a great time to be trolling flies. My wife and I have enjoyed many Fall days just slowly making our way around the lake with our fly rods out and watching the tips twitch as trout nip at the flies and then the reels scream as one hooks up. We have done this clear into November. I have yet to get one, but this is the best time to catch the big Brown Trout on the lake, too. This week's photo was taken on Fish Lake in the fall a few years ago.

Earlier this Summer I reported that I saw work being done on the Million Dollar Mile North boat access. I called Aulin Smith, a WDFW staffer, and asked if the work had been completed. He did me the favor of running down there and checking it out. It's done and if you like fishing this mid-section of Banks Lake, you are in for a treat. They have put in a new 80-foot plank boat launch, a vault toilet, paved parking for 16 trucks and trailers and more! I have used the old launch, and it was only really usable when the water was up. Aulin believes that they have made the small basin deeper, too. I have always liked launching here as it put me right where I want to fish. The shoreline from the launch offers great fishing for Walleye and Smallmouth Bass. I also like to fish for Bass on the shore opposite the launch and it's a quick run to reach great fishing areas. I was really nervous about launching the Bob Feil Smoker Craft there, but now I can't wait to use it. Funding for the project was through the Recreation and Conservation Office.

Pullman LOVE Scavenger Hunt for Couples Date Night

Recommended starting point (event is interactive & on phone app), 210 N Grand Ave, Pullman

Sunday, November 3, at any time you choose; you can experience this fun event with your significant other, everyone loves a good scavenger hunt! It is exhilarating & just plain fun, the City LOVE Scavenger hunt has taken the classic idea of a hunt & turned it into an interactive scavenger hunt date night. It includes love-building challenges that you and your spouse will appreciate, uses a scavenger hunt app to give you a list of fun & crazy tasks to complete, as well as some cool things to look for & find around the city. Since the hunt is self-guided, feel free to stop for a drink, browse a boutique, or pop in a fun exhibit along the way to really crank up the fun! Tickets are $10 for two, to purchase please visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/pullman-love-scavenger-hunt-for-couples-date-night-tickets-820002709177?aff=ebdssbdestsearch>

GARDENING TIPS

Master Gardeners of Spokane County

TOOLS

This is a good time to clean your hand tools. Remove all dirt and rust from the metal, sand and repaint wooden handles. Store in a dry location for the winter.

BULBS

As long as the ground has not frozen, you can plant spring bulbs directly into the garden. Follow instructions on bulb packaging for depth of planting & provide a mulch cover over the top of newly planted bulbs to prevent heaving.

TREES & SHRUBS

Continue to water your trees and shrubs until the ground freezes. Tie up or trim back branches of loosely branched Evergreens. Pull mulch away from trunks to prevent rodents from hiding and eating the bark.

HOUSEPLANTS

Check plants that have summered outside for pests frequently. Reduce your rate of watering to allow for slower growth and do not fertilize until spring. Plant forced bulbs (paperwhites, amaryllis) now for winter interest.

FRANKIE VOLZ, JR. PREPS FOR VEGAS

SPOKANE — Local open-wheel fanatic Frankie Volz, Jr. has been busy preparing his new car to go racing against some of the best super mod drivers on the West Coast, Nov. 16 at the Bullring in Las Vegas.

The Open Wheel Showdown will pay $5,000 to win and so far has over 20 teams registered, Volz wrote in a Facebook Messenger post.

"I think we have a hotrod capable of bringing home the win if the racing gods are on my side," Volz said.

NORTHPORT MUD BOGS ARE NOV. 2

Northport International Raceway will present another edition of its mud bog series on Saturday, Nov. 2.

"Come watch the mud fly with less water," promoter Cory Bell wrote in a Facebook Messenger post.

Trophies and payouts. Gates open at 10 a.m. and mud flies at noon. Cost is $40 to play and $10 to watch

"We're going to do drag races also, mud drags and a tug a war," Bell said. All rigs welcome, side by side quads snowmobiles.

Further information is available at Northport's Facebook page.

FORCE DISCUSSES RETURN TO RACING | From John Force Racing

LAS VEGAS, Nevada – With two of his race teams battling for the NHRA Mission Foods Funny Car championship and daughter Brittany showing flashes of the form that carried her to a pair of Top Fuel titles, drag racing icon John Force has secured clearance from doctors treating him for a TBI (Traumatic Brain Injury) to attend the 24th NHRA Nevada Nationals, Nov. 1-3, at The Strip in Las Vegas Motor Speedway.

"Vegas is close enough to home that (my wife) Laurie and I can drive over," Force said. "I want to show my support for our race teams, the fans and all our sponsors. They've stuck with me during a hard time, and I want them to know that I haven't forgotten them and I haven't gone anywhere. I've just been doing my rehab, trying to stay strong."

The 75-year-old resident of Yorba Linda, Calif., an inductee into all the major auto racing Halls of Fame, acknowledged that doctors have been treating him not only for the injury he suffered in the June 23rd crash in Richmond, Va., but for the cumulative effect of the multitude of hard hits he has absorbed in a 50-year career during which he has collected 157 tour victories and 16 championships.

Before the crash, Force already had won twice this year and his PEAK Antifreeze and Coolant Chevrolet team was solidly in contention for the championship. After missing two races, that team returned at Brainerd, Minn., with former World Champion Jack Beckman in the seat of the PEAK Camaro.

Beckman won the NHRA Midwest Nationals at St. Louis on Sept. 30 and, entering the LVMS event, the next to last race in the Countdown to the Championship, trails only teammate Austin Prock, a seven-time winner in the Cornwell Tools and AAA Chevrolet, in the Mission driver standings.

"I'm still a work in progress," Force said. "I have good days and bad days, but I'm motivated."

Beckman's been doing a good job working with Dan Hood, Chris Cunningham and Tim Fabrisi.

He tells me it's still my car but he's driving it like it's his. It's been exciting to watch him and (Austin) Prock on Fox but watching on TV is not the same as being there.

"I want to be there for Brittany and that team with (David) Grubnic and John Collins. They're gonna win a race with Monster and HendrickCars.com and Chevrolet and I want to be there when they do, and I really can't wait to see all my guys. I love them and I've missed them and can't wait to be with them again."
