HISTORIC PHOTOS of IDAHO PANHANDLE

Fires of 1910

Throughout the summer of 1910, hundreds of small fires broke out in northern Idaho, western Montana and eastern Montana. For almost a week in mid-August the town of Wallace was encircled with fires, but they were miles from the city and any real danger seemed remote. However, as the week of August 14 came to a close conditions became very threatening. Fragments of burning timbers began to fall in the streets and on top of buildings. On Saturday afternoon, August 20 the wind began to blow in all directions. By evening residents of Wallace saw for the first time flames over the top of the mountains advancing towards the city. Shortly before 9:00 in the evening a large fireball fell on a wooden building near Bank Street. The flames leaped across the street to the Michigan Hotel and within a few minutes the entire east end of Wallace was burning. Before fire could be stopped, more than 100 buildings were destroyed with an estimated loss of over one million dollars.

It sure looks like winter has arrived here in Leavenworth. Although it has snowed quite a bit I am still holding out hope that we get enough rain to wash it away and I can get some more trips in with the Smoker Craft. I don't want to tuck it away too soon and miss some great early winter fishing.

Judging by the amount of snow that we got here in Leavenworth this past week, I picked a great time to be away. My wife and I spent the past week in Zihuatanejo, Mexico, enjoying the sunshine and mid 80s temperatures. This town of about 160,000 is on the Pacific Coast north of Acapulco. It is known for beautiful beaches and great fishing. One of the first things we did, after getting settled in, was to arrange a fishing trip with Victor Vargas Valle, who we met on the La Ropa Beach in front of our hotel. He picked us up early in the morning and delivered us to the marina, where we were met by his cousins Carlos and Jair aboard their super panga. We headed out of the bay into the open ocean, with "the White Rocks" as our destination fishing grounds. This large rock island has no vegetation and is home to hundreds of birds. Soon after the rods were run out, we hooked a nice bonito, the first of six I would land that day. The first baited hook on an outrigger got a savage strike, but either a big Sierra or shark had cleanly cut the line. Although we didn't get another strike on our bait rod, we did see three huge leatherback turtles and a pod of dolphins. It was a great day on the water. This week's photo was taken on the boat that day.

Whenever I travel, I always take at least one rod along. Sometimes as many as three. When I am heading for Belize, I will take a few, two fly-rods and a spinning rod. On this trip to Zihuatanejo I just took a spinning rod along and a few lures that I felt would be good for species that hang out close to shore. One morning my wife Eileen and I walked to the far edge of La Ropa Beach, where a breakwater met the shoreline. I tried a lure that was really made for topwater bass fishing, but when I threw it as far as I could, where I could see some rocks on the bottom, I saw something slash at it. I finally hooked something that jumped and tore off some line. When I got it to the beach, I discovered that it was a needle fish that was about 3 feet long. These fish are very slender and have a long needle nose with rows of sharp teeth. I released it and although I tried several more casts didn't hook anything else. At one point my lure popped off, but Eileen spotted it on the water, and I was but switched to a pink and white Shimano lure that weighed three ounces and would put me closer to those rocks. The needle fish liked this one, and I landed two, before losing it on one of the rocks. As I was tying on another plug, a snorkeler came up and gave me the lure I had lost. He saw it stuck on the bottom and brought it to me. I was amazed to have my hot lure back, and after a couple more casts I landed a small snapper. Fishing like this was a great way to spend the time on the beach, and next time I will know what kind of lures to take.

Anglers who like to fish for coho on the Icicle here in Leavenworth had some success, but the very low water conditions were an issue. This hampered the return of coho into the Icicle from the Columbia. According to the dam counts there were over 25 thousand coho that passed over Rock Island Dam and over 12 thousand went over Rock Reach. That means that there were as many as 13 thousand that could have run up the Wenatchee River and into the Icicle. Better water conditions came very late in the season, which ends on November 30th, and anglers did enjoy very good action when this occurred. I had heard that the number of coho that arrived made the stream look like something you would see in Alaska.

able to swim out and retrieve it. This experience was encouraging, though. I am always the optimist!

After having some success casting from shore in Zihuatanejo at one end of the mile-long La Ropa Beach, I tried a spot at the very opposite end. There was a big rocky point here with many large rocks scattered all the way into the shore. This was a very popular spot for snorkelers, so I had to be sure to avoid them with my casts. I did see some fish splash near my lure, and I was pretty sure they were needle fish. I was throwing that topwater bass lure ka. I checked on the river prior to the end of the season and there were still people fishing and getting near or close to their limits. Everyone is hoping that the big returns of sockeye to the Icicle can be expected every year. Hopefully Mother Nature will cooperate, and we will have higher water to conditions and excellent fishing much earlier in the season.

Now that I am home, I need to get out here locally and see what's going on. If I can't launch the boat, there are great shore fishing opportunities this time of year.

WEEKLY Horoscopes for Nov. 28 - Dec. 4

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20
Aries, be careful what you ask for, as things have a funny way of coming true for you this week. Censor your thoughts for now, and perhaps hold your cards closer to the vest.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21
Taurus, you may have a lot of anxious thoughts right now. Friends provide a welcome diversion later in the week, and you also may want to put in more hours at work to stay distracted.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21
Gemini, plans aren't panning out as you'd hoped, so consider other opportunities. Stop and consider all the possibilities as soon as possible and then make a decision.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22
Thoughts of love and relationships are on your mind, Cancer. However, you will have trouble expressing just how you feel to others. Think through your words before saying them.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23
Leo, you are a whirlwind of activity, and this causes a bit of disruption to a normally organized week. Others may remark on how you seem to be all over the place, but you know your limits.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22
It's hard to imagine fitting anything else into your packed schedule, Virgo. Somehow you manage to do it. But the effects could prove stressful. Try lightening your load this week.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23
It's time to plan and prepare, Libra. Take out a pen and paper and start making lists or use a digital planner. It's the only way to remain organized with so much going on.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22
Matters at home are a priority this week, Scorpio. Focus your attention on tackling things around the house and you'll have more time to devote to fun down the road.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21
It might be time to pinch some pennies, Sagittarius. This week you could come up a bit short, and it doesn't bode well for the rest of the month. Consider new revenue streams.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20
Capricorn, things turn out to be calm this week, and it is surprising how much you can accomplish. This slow pace is just the reprieve you've needed.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18
Aquarius, there's not much you can do about a particular problem, so it may be better to stop thinking about a solution. Put your attention toward something you can control.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20
Pisces, a few minor tweaks to your schedule and you could be able to tackle a number of tasks this week. Enjoy the productivity.

NW MOTORSPORTS Report

"Going fast is your job...Telling people about it is ours...!"

IWS SPRINT SERIES CHAMPION | STATELINE SPEEDWAY

Doug Cotey made his tow from the Tri Cities worthwhile winning the 2024 IWS Sprint Series title.

Cotey, from West Richland, said the key to securing a 284-272 title win over Cody Ridge from Snohomish was simple.

"I was just consistent throughout the year with making all the races and finishing them," Cotey wrote in an email. He scored in the top 5 three times and top 10 four times.

Cotey did not win any races this year but got his first top 3 in Wenatchee. "That was a big boost in points for me," he said. "That was my best finish since starting in sprint car racing."

Cotey raced motocross at a younger age but got into cars in his 20's.

"I started racing in the Northwest Super Fours and did a bit of racing there," Cotey said.

He did not race for a while but with help from a friend, John Hill, he decided to get into the sprint cars and has been doing this for the past four years.

In real life, Cotey is a registered nurse and has been for 16 years.

Cotey's crew is of course composed of family, his wife Crystal Cotey, sons Steven and Jacob Cotey, Johnny Rumsey and Melissa Morris.

His sponsors are Columbia Safety LLC, out of Pasco WA, Badger Tactical of Pasco, Hot Rod Company out of Spokane for building his motor.

BUMP-TO-PASS CHAMPION | STATELINE SPEEDWAY

Sarah Hodgason won the 2024 Bump-to-Pass championship at Stateline speedway in just her second season behind the wheel.

Her keys to victory were largely showing up and finishing in top 3-5. "I technically had two wins this season, one after the race due to the top 2 finishing cars being DQ'd and one on the track win."

The race on July 3rd was her first official win since Hodgason started racing. "It also gave me a good jump ahead to keep my position in points."

Hodgason describes her initiation to racing as plenty problematic.

"Last season was my first in this class and I had more car issues than I could ever imagine," Hodgason wrote in an email. "I only actually finished three races, ended the season on my fourth transmission, multiple races brakes going out, and a bad wall hit."

Over the winter her team and family made the decision to build a new car since that was not the first big wall hit that car had taken and it was bent in every way possible, Hodgason explained.

sible, Hodgason explained.

"This season I came out with my new Monte Carlo and finished every race, got a couple wins and won season points," Hodgason said. "I am getting faster every race day and cannot wait for next season."

This was Hodgason's fifth season racing and second in Bump To Pass. She finished fifth in Bump to Pass points in 2023. Her first three seasons were spent in the Roadrunner class.

Hodgason works in production at Corbin Custom Works where we make accessories that can be used to make Side by Sides street legal.

Crew/Family consists of Marshall Racing and Blue Line Racing. Sponsors include:

Monte and Tammy Burchett, Tim's Special Cut Meats, Hillyard Tire, Bulldog Towing and BLLRS Motorsports.

November GARDENING TIPS

Master Gardeners of Spokane County

TOOLS

This is a good time to clean your hand tools. Remove all dirt and rust from the metal, sand and repaint wooden handles. Store in a dry location for the winter.

BULBS

As long as the ground has not frozen, you can plant spring bulbs directly into the garden. Follow instructions on bulb packaging for depth of planting & provide a mulch cover over the top of newly planted bulbs to prevent heaving.

TREES & SHRUBS

Continue to water your trees and shrubs until the ground freezes. Tie up or trim back branches of loosely branched Evergreens. Pull mulch away from trunks to prevent rodents from hiding and eating the bark.

HOUSEPLANTS

Check plants that have summered outside for pests frequently. Reduce your rate of watering to allow for slower growth and do not fertilize until spring. Plant forced bulbs (paperwhites, amaryllis) now for winter interest.
