Dave Johnson
"The Outdoor Insider"

I hope you have made plans to try your luck at the Banks Lake Triple Fish Challenge. I also got out and fished Billy Clapp Lake, Lake Chelan and Rufus Woods last week.

The Banks Lake Triple Fish Challenge, conducted by Reel Recreation, is coming up on April 11th through the 13th. It kicks off with Fun Friday, with a variety of activities. They include a trout pond, gold panning, golf, a climbing wall, and the Ninja Climb. To satisfy your hunger and thirst, there will be a lemonade stand, cotton candy and a taco stand. On Saturday and Sunday anglers will take on the challenge of catching three species. They must catch a bass, a walleye and a "kicker" species, which could be a whitefish or a rainbow trout. If they can do this two days in a row, they qualify for the prizes. Each day, the heaviest rainbow trout, walleye, bass, and whitefish in adult and youth divisions will be awarded prizes. Youth anglers will receive prizes for each day's heaviest 3 fish stringers. In the Adult class, the angler with the heaviest 6 fish total (2 bass, 2 walleye, and 2 "kicker" fish) will win the Grand Prize. You can register and get all of the rules by logging on to reelrecreation.com. There are some rule changes in place this year that should really help anglers have even better success. I hope to see you there!

My neighbor Dan Fiske, owner of the Yodelin restaurants in Leavenworth and Port Angeles, says that kokanee are his favorite fish. So, Dan and his 13 year old son, Calder, joined me last Saturday for my first trip to Lake Chelan this year to see if we could catch some. I used the city launch above the dam and drove the Smoker Craft up to an area below Rocky Point, keeping a close eye on the Gamin fish finder to start our search. Not long after we started trolling on the Minn Kota, one of the downrigger rods started bouncing, and Calder reeled in a 15 inch beauty. We then left the lower basin and ran up above the Yacht Club. Here we found the kokanee fishing fleet. There were at least a half dozen boats scattered across the water from Green's Landing to the area I call The Fences, as there are some long, white vinyl fences leading to homes on the lake. One passing angler mentioned that they had started here at first light and had caught five fish. We worked through this area and landed three small kokanee. Fishing for kokanee on Chelan will improve as more of them move down from the upper lake. This week's photo is of Calder with this 15 inch kokanee from Lake Chelan.

I made another trip to Rufus Woods, hoping to have another busy day catching triploid rainbow trout. My fishing partners Keith Hiatt, Alex Saliby and I did. It took me a while to find the numbers of fish I was looking for on the Garmin fish finder, and I even moved locations a couple of times. When the screen was filled with fish, I would launch the Minn Kota and park on them. The fish were certainly more scattered than on my last two trips. Initially, the current was running so strong that I dug out some heavier jigs, and that helped. Actually, it didn't matter what Keith and I tried, Alex caught fish after fish. He got a reputation for this kind of "fish hogery" when the three of us fished for bass at Banks Lake a few years ago. At one point I had all kinds of lead head jigs and grubs laid out on the back of the Smoker Craft for Keith and I to try, but we just couldn't keep up with Alex. I must say that this batch of trout the Colville Tribe released are in beautiful shape, and we had a blast catching them.

I was invited to fish Billy Clapp

Lake with Dennis and Monaca Beich last Sunday and I said yes with enthusiasm. I have mentioned in previous reports that I've had several great days fishing for rainbow trout here in the late winter or early spring. I stopped by the week before to check on conditions and found the dock floating and people launching their fishing boats. After loading the boat, we headed up to the big basalt island and started looking for fish on the Gamin fish finder. We weren't really seeing many. There were a few marks that looked like big trout, but nothing was hitting the plugs that we were flatlining out the back of the boat. After a while we decided to make the run up to the top end of the lake to see if we could mark some walleye. We did get some good walleye marks, but they were awfully deep, and we weren't set up for walleye fishing. We spent a little more time trolling back where we started. We got a couple of hits, but didn't hook a single trout. We are hoping trout fishing will improve when the water temperature warms up.

I want to remind everyone that fishing licenses must be renewed each year on the first of April. I wouldn't be the first one to let this get me. I have had to jump online to get one to keep legal. If you haven't done this, it really isn't too difficult. However, you can't get your salmon or steelhead punch cards online, you have to get these at a store that sells licenses. Also, I have had friends who have shown up to go fishing with me that had their fishing license but didn't know they needed a salmon card. The person at the counter just didn't ask and they didn't know. Be sure to ask. They don't cost anything either. The other fishing license item is that you don't want to throw last year's catch record card away. You need to send it to Olympia. The instructions are on the punch cards, and they are due by the end of the month. I stopped by the ramp at the east end of Evergreen Reservoir on my way home from Billy Clapp. The water is up about as high as it gets, and the ramp can be used.

More and more fishing opportunities are coming this spring!

HISTORIC PHOTOS of IDAHO PANHANDLE

The Flyer

On October 11, 1906, boat builder P.W. Johnson launched the Flyer, one of the most popular steamboats on Lake Coeur d'Alene. The Flyer was one of many steamboats that was owned and operated by J.C. White and his navigation company, the Red Collar Line. White started his steamboat business during the early 1900s and soon owned most of the large steamboats on Lake Coeur d'Alene. White also teamed up with the Spokane & Coeur d'Alene electric line and the Northern Pacific Railroad, which brought many tourists into Coeur d'Alene. The Flyer was one of the last steamboats to operate on Lake Coeur d'Alene. On July 4, 1938, the old boat was set on fire as part of the Independence Day celebration.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Small businesses accounted for 65% of all net new jobs over the past 17 years.

- Small businesses employ 77 million Americans.

- 89% of consumers agree that independent businesses contribute positively to local economies.

- Residential neighborhoods served by a successful independent business district gained, on average, 50% more in home values than their citywide markets.

- Independent restaurants return more than two times as much money per dollar of sales than national restaurant chains.

- If independent businesses regain their 1990 market shares, it would create 200,000 new small businesses, generate nearly $300 billion in revenues and employ more than 1.6 million Americans.

- If just half the U.S. employed population spent $50 each month in locally owned independent businesses, it would generate more than $42.6 billion in revenue.

- For every square foot a local firm occupies, the local economy gains $179 vs. $105 for a chain store.

WEEKLY Horoscopes

for April 10 - 16

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

This week you are going to take action on a project that has been on your mind for awhile, Aries. Trust your instincts, but make sure you are not moving too fast.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

This week brings an opportunity for intellectual pursuits, Taurus. You might think to enroll in a higher education class or a take a course on a specific hobby that has been on your mind.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21

Partnerships are key right now, Gemini. You might want to pursue new professional relationships. Embrace your ability and willingness to adapt and facilitate change.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22

You need to take care of your body and mind, Cancer. Now is as good a time as any to begin this pursuit. Even small adjustments can lead to long-term health benefits.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23

Leo, this is your week to look into matters of self-expression and creativity. Pour your energy into anything that gets you excited. Your enthusiasm may draw others in as well.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, home life takes center stage this week, and you might feel a strong desire to nurture your space. Decluttering and organizing could bring more harmony to your home.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

Libra, you are able to express your thoughts with clarity and charm, which is why personal relationships often come easy to you. This week you may use this superpower to make friends.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

You may soon find yourself reevaluating how you spend your money or what you value most in life, Scorpio. This is a good time to check financial goals and adjust them.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

There is a sense of fresh energy surrounding you this week, Sagittarius. If you have been putting off something, now is the time to take the leap.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

Capricorn, focus on rest and relaxation in the days ahead. You have been putting in a lot of work lately and now is a time to focus on your inner self and recharge.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Collaborations with others could prove fruitful this week, Aquarius. Don't hesitate to lean on your social network when you need to get something done.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20

You might be presented with a way to take your professional life to the next level, Pisces. Strategize about how to move forward in this regard, and think through all decisions.

ZACH RIEHL COMPLETES MISSION WITH 'APPLE CUP' WIN

From NWSLM Media & NW Motorsports News Services

WEST RICHLAND, Washington (April 6, 2025) – A pass with two laps remaining of Kasey Kleyn delivered the 2025 Apple Cup win to Zach Riehl.

Riehl had been knocking on the door of victory lane for some time but finally closed the deal in the Northwest's oldest late model stock car race at Tri-City Raceway RMEC. The victory was good for a $10,000 payday for the 16 year old.

"I didn't think this day would ever come. It is definitely a crazy experience," Riehl said following victory in the 125 lap race on the TCR half mile tri oval.

Kleyn took the lead on lap 86, in a daring three wide move.

The two leaders embarked on a torrid battle that saw Riehl dipping to the inside of Kleyn on multiple occasions. On lap 123, Riehl finally got his break, when Kleyn slipped in turn 3, allowing Riehl to grab the top spot.

"I was taking my time and the opportunity opened up for me to take the lead through some hard racing, when the leaders washed up the track," Kleyn said. "Unfortunately, I wasn't able to hold onto the lead until the end of the race."

Trace Thompson started deep in the field in 17th, but drove through the field, showing patience. He was able to wrestle the third spot away from Plybon with four laps to go, after an extended battle with the 2023 series champion.

"I think we took a little too long to get around the 55 (Plybon), but overall, it was a great day with a top three," Thompson said.

Plybon ended up fourth with, Ryan Phipps

(5th), Johvan Dillon (6th), Ken Bonney (7th), Wyatt Gardner (8th), Terry Halverson (9th) and Andrew Palmer made up the rest of the top 10.

Former 2005 and 2008 champ BJ Tidrick was 16th.

"At the beginning of the race, I knew that we were going to have to back it down and save some tires", Riehl said. "It's a long race with 125 laps and only four tires. We were just trying to cruise and pick our passes without spinning our tires. At the end we picked it up and it definitely worked out."

This is the fourth Apple Cup staged at Tri City Raceway since its rebirth in 2022 at the track which had been closed since 2024. The Apple Cup originated at Yakima Speedway in 1967 but the track closed in 2022 and the race moved.

The next event for the Northwest Super Late Model Series is the "Leonard Evans Memorial 150" at the Wenatchee Valley Super Oval on April 26th. Jan Evans will be looking to defend his title from 2024 and score his second career victory in the series.

LIGHTNING-FAST LAST PIT STOP NETS HAMLIN VICTORY

By Holly Cain - NASCAR Wire Service

DARLINGTON, S.C. (April 6, 2025) – A perfectly executed overtime restart by Denny Hamlin following a clutch final pit stop by his Joe Gibbs Racing crew provided exactly the advantage the veteran needed to claim the trophy in Sunday's Goodyear 400 at Darlington (S.C.) Raceway.

Hamlin took the race lead out of the pits during the final late race caution then bested the field on the ensuing restart, pulling his No. 11 Joe Gibbs Racing Toyota out front and ultimately to a .597 second victory over the day's most dominant driver, Hendrick Motorsports' William Byron.

It's the second consecutive victory for Hamlin, who won last week at Martinsville, Va. and marks the first time he's won back-to-back races since 2012 when he won at Bristol, Tenn. then Atlanta the following week.

All smiles as he climbed out the car, Hamlin gave all the credit to his pit crew. He was third place at the time of the final caution – the yellow coming out for Byron's Hendrick teammate Kyle Larson's spin. The leaders seized the chance to pit for fresh tires in anticipation of the overtime restart and Hamlin's crew got him out of the pits first - ahead of 23XI Racing's Tyler Reddick and Byron.

A perfect launch on the ensuing green flag gave Hamlin the victory over Byron, who led a race best 243 of the 297 laps. It is Hamlin's 56th career win, breaking a tie with NASCAR Hall of Famer Rusty Wallace for 11th place on NASCAR's all-time wins list.

"There's two people I really love right now, my pit crew and Kyle Larson," the 44 year old Virginian Hamlin said with a grin. "Had a little assist there, so thank you."

It was obviously a tough ending to a career day for Byron, who rallied to the runner up finish on the final restart but had absolutely dominated the early race, leading the opening 243 laps and claiming both Stage 1 and Stage 2 victories. It was the most laps Byron has ever led in a single race.

"First off, just really proud of my team to bring that level of effort and preparation and have a car like that and us execute like that," Byron said.

"It sucks and I'm sure it will sting tonight, but there are still a lot of positives. It just stings in the moment for sure."

Hamlin's JGR teammate Christopher Bell finished third in the No. 20 Toyota after an amazing rally forward from a 20th place starting position. Reddick finished fourth in the 23XI Racing Toyota, co-owned by Hamlin and NBA legend Michael Jordan.

Team Penske's Ryan Blaney finished fifth. It is the 2023 NASCAR Cup Series champion's first top five at the 1.366 mile historic track, but the result still stings as Blaney had just taken the race lead moments before the final caution came out with only three laps of regulation remaining.

"Oh no," Blaney said when the yellow flag flew.

Roush Fenway Keselowski Racing's Chris Buescher finished sixth, followed by Trackhouse Racing's Ross Chastain, Hendrick's Chase Elliott, JGR's Ty Gibbs and Richard Childress Racing's Kyle Busch. It was a season best effort for Gibbs.

Byron's runner-up showing keeps him in the NASCAR Cup Series championship lead now by 49 points over Hamlin and 52 points over Bell.

The NASCAR Cup Series moves to the famed Bristol (Tenn.) Motor Speedway high banks next weekend for Sunday's Food City 500 (3 p.m. ET, FS1, PRN, SiriusXM NASCAR Radio). Hamlin is the defending winner.
